OCT 13

ORDER

It is this 13th day of October, 1972, ORDERED:

1. That defendants, their agents and employees shall immediately segregate from the general population all inmates of the District of Columbia Jail under 18 years of age. Such segregation shall include, but not be limited to, sleeping, dining, and recreation.

2. Attorneys of the Public Defender Service and others designated by counsel for plaintiffs shall be forthwith admitted to the District of Columbia Jail for the purpose of conferring with inmates. Those attorneys shall take immediate action to present to the appropriate courts such non-frivolous claims of each inmate as can be heard on an emergency basis, either by notifying the attorneys already appointed for the inmates, or if such attorneys are unavailable or unwilling to take action, by presenting the claims themselves.

3. Defendants, their agents and employees, shall take no action, nor make any threat of action, to injure or harrass any inmate because of actions arising out of the disturbance at the District of Columbia Jail on October 11 and 12, 1972.

4. Defendants, their agents and employees shall permit counsel for plaintiffs and their designated agents to inspect personally all parts of
