12/14/2006	ORDER-RELINQUISHMENT GR (CIRC CT)		Ian Deco Lightbourne and other prisoners under sentences of death have filed a petition seeking to invoke this Court's all writs jurisdiction. We have jurisdiction pursuant to article V, section 3(b)(7) of the Florida Constitution. The petition involves various issues relating to the execution of Angel Nieves Diaz and the use of lethal injection as a method of execution. We grant partial temporary relief by allowing Petitioner Lightbourne to designate a representative to attend the autopsy of Angel Nieves Diaz and order that the autopsy of Diaz, pursuant to section 922.11 (3), Florida Statutes (2006), continue without delay in the presence of Lightbourne's representative. We hereby relinquish jurisdiction to the Circuit Court of the Fifth Judicial Circuit in and for Marion County, Florida, for an immediate determination of Petitioner Lightbourne's request for an independent autopsy of Diaz. We further order that Diaz's body be preserved pending order of the circuit court, pursuant to this relinquishment. All other issues raised by Petitioner Lightbourne shall be acted on by the circuit court as soon as possible. We defer ruling at this time on the propriety of these claims in regard to the remaining named Petitioners. We deny the Attorney General's motion to preserve evidence as moot in light of this order.
