ORDER

This is a class action lawsuit in which a consent order was entered on March 11, 1994. Currently before the Court is a report and motion for entry of an agreed order filed by the plaintiffs.

This Court having read the motion and being duly advised of the purpose and nature of the request, hereby enters the following order:

Paragraph 28 of the Consent Decree, which currently reads as follows:

This Court retains continuing jurisdiction over this case to enforce compliance with the Consent Decree until March 11, 2006, at which time the Consent Decree will expire unless extended pursuant to Paragraph 29, will now read as follows:

This Court retains continuing jurisdiction over this case to enforce compliance with all Consent Decree provisions regarding sibling visitation until March 11, 2008, at which time the Consent Decree will expire unless extended pursuant to Paragraph 29.
