05/31/2010	124	ORDER – Previously, the Court took under advisement two discovery issues. [See dkt. 101 .] On the first issue, the Court finds that any probative information that could be uncovered by class-member discovery is outweighed by the significant intrusion upon the class members' privacy. The next issue was the propriety of Defendants' Interrogatories 4–5 and Requests for Production 5–7, all directed to Plaintiff Perdue. To the extent that Ms. Perdue has any other responsive information that has not previously been provided to Defendants, the facial nature of the challenge to Defendants' questions means that the probative value of that information is outweighed by the intrusion upon Ms. Perdue's privacy, and is thus improper. 05/08/2019	239	ORDER – DENYING 238 MOTION TO REOPEN CASE. Mr. Shaw seeks to reopen this closed class action lawsuit so that he can pursue summary judgment against Defendant, The Individual Members of the Indiana State Board of Law Examiners ("the Board"). Mr. Shaw's motion must be denied for several reasons. First, Mr. Shaw is not a member of the plaintiff class, therefore, he lacks standing to seek the relief which is sought in this post–judgment motion. The final judgment entered on October 6, 2011 did not award Mr. Shaw any relief, did not adjudicate any claim asserted by Mr. Shaw, and did not create or modify conditions under which Mr. Shaw would become licensed to practice law in the State of Indiana. Even if Mr. Shaw were a member of the class, he could not individually litigate the filed motion. (See Order.) For the reasons stated above, Mr. Shaw's Motion to reopen this case, (Dkt. 238 ), is DENIED. Copies per distribution list. Signed by Judge Tanya Walton Pratt on 5/8/2019.
