10/28/2009 57 Filed order (MARY M. SCHROEDER, MARSHA S. BERZON and MILTON I. SHADUR):.....While the parties are not required to brief this aspect of the case, the court is relatedly concerned that the parties did not expressly inform the court that (a) Brust, Bulala and Ludwig had graduated and so were no longer viable plaintiffs for injunctive relief in the Mansourian action; (b) Brust, Bulala and Ludwig had already entered a settlement with UC Davis (subject to district court approval of the class settlement) and were for that additional reason not viable plaintiffs for injunctive relief in this case; and (c) the Brust case is a class action in which the parties were seeking approval of a settlement providing broad injunctive relief for the class, a settlement with a clear impact on the amendment issue in Mansourian. The briefs shall be submitted within fourteen days of this order. [7110271] (AF)
