Plaintiffs DESIREE SHELTON and SARAH LINDSTROM, through their undersigned counsel, sues Defendants ANOKA-HENNEPIN SCHOOL DISTRICT; CHAMPLIN PARK HIGH SCHOOL; DENNIS CARLSON, in his official capacity as the Superintendent of Anoka-Hennepin School District; and MICHAEL GEORGE, in his official capacity as the Principal of Champlin Park High School. By this Complaint, Plaintiff seeks preliminary and permanent injunctive relief, declaratory relief, damages, and costs and attorneys fees.

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. This is a free speech and civil rights case on behalf of Plaintiffs Desiree Shelton and Sarah Lindstrom, both of whom are twelfth-grade student at Champlin Park

High School (“CPHS”), which is within the Anoka-Hennepin School District (the “District”). Desiree and Sarah are both eighteen years old. Like many of their classmates, Desiree and Sarah have been excited to participate in the annual Snow Days Week celebration, scheduled for January 31 through February 5, 2011. In particular, Desiree and Sarah were both elected by their peers to be members of the Snow Days Royalty Court, and desired to process across the CPHS Field House as a couple during the Pep Fest and Coronation Ceremony.

2. Desiree and Sarah would like to participate in the Pep Fest and Coronation procession as a couple, but are prohibited from doing so because CPHS Principal Defendant Michael George has told them that the Royalty Court procession has been canceled and, instead, the assembly will begin with the Royalty Court seated on stage.<sup>1</sup> Such actions were taken for the purpose of suppressing the viewpoint of Plaintiffs’ constitutionally protected speech.

3. Prior to bringing this lawsuit, Desiree and Sarah attempted to informally resolve these issues with the District, including meeting with George, and requesting in writing through their counsel that Defendants reinstate the Pep Fest and Coronation procession and allow Plaintiffs to participate as a couple. See Letter from Sam Wolfe to Defendants Carlson and George, dated January 28, 2011, attached hereto as Exhibit A. Plaintiffs’ efforts were unsuccessful.

<sup>1</sup> Based on a telephone conversation with school-district attorney Paul H. Cady on Friday, January 28, 2011, it appears that the Defendants are still considering other alternatives to the traditional procession—for example, having the Royalty Court enter the assembly in a single-file line. Any alternative to the traditional procession, however, constitutes a violation of the Plaintiffs’ constitutional and statutory rights, and the analysis remains the same.

4. The Defendants' prohibitions and actions against Desiree and Sarah constitute impermissible viewpoint discrimination under the First Amendment to the United States Constitution, violate their equal protection rights under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution and the Minnesota Constitution, and constitute prohibited discrimination under the Minnesota Human Rights Act.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5. Plaintiffs bring this action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 for violations of the freedom of expression under the First Amendment to the United States Constitution and violation of equal protection rights under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution. Plaintiffs also bring this action pursuant to Minn. Stat. §§ 363A.28, subd. 1 and 363A.33, subd. 1 for violations of Plaintiffs statutory rights as outlined in the Minnesota Human Rights Act.

6. This Court has subject-matter jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question) and 28 U.S.C. § 1343(a)(3) (civil rights). This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over the state law claims being asserted herein pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367.

7. This Court has jurisdiction to declare the rights of the parties and to award any further necessary and proper relief pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and 2202. Rule 65 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure authorizes injunctive relief. This Court has authority to award costs and attorney's fees under 42 U.S.C. § 1988 and Minn. Stat. § 363A.33, subd. 7.

8. Venue is proper in this judicial district and division pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) because the events or omissions giving rise to Plaintiffs' claims occurred in Champlin, Minnesota, which is within the District of Minnesota.

FACTS GIVING RISE TO THIS ACTION

15. Desiree Shelton is eighteen years old and a senior at CPHS.
16. Desiree is a lesbian.
17. Desiree's sexual orientation is known by many of the students at CPHS as well as the teachers and administrators at CPHS.
18. Sarah Lindstrom is eighteen years old and a senior at CPHS.
19. Sarah is a lesbian.
20. Sarah's sexual orientation is known by many of the students at CPHS as well as the teachers and administrators at CPHS.
21. Desiree and Sarah are currently in a relationship and consider themselves to be girlfriends.
22. Snow Days Week is an annual celebration at CPHS held during the winter. It consists of a week of events starting with a Pep Fest and Coronation assembly on Monday and ends with a formal dance on Saturday. In 2011, Snow Days Week takes place from January 31 through February 5.
23. Every year, the student body at CPHS elects students that comprise the Snow Days Week Royalty Court. Selection as a member of the Royalty Court is considered an honor as the Royalty Court is a central component of Snow Days Week. A Snow Days Week Royalty Court has existed at CPHS since the school was founded in 1992. Freshman, sophomore, and junior classes each select two males and two females from their class to serve on the Royalty Court. The senior class elects six males and six females to serve as royalty. In 2011, voting for royalty occurred on Wednesday, January 19.

24. All CPHS students are encouraged to attend the Snow Days Pep Fest and Coronation Ceremony. The assembly is staged with a decorated arch on one end of the Field House and a stage on the other end.

25. At the beginning of the assembly, the Royalty Court processes into the Field House through the arch. The members of the Royalty Court are coupled as they process into the Field House.

26. Historically, members of the Royalty Court were allowed to choose their processional partner if they had a particular preference. When the students do not have a preference, a CPHS staff member pairs-up the students randomly as opposite-sex couples. When two students who are boyfriend and girlfriend are selected, it has been common practice to allow them to walk in the processional together.

27. As the coupled royalty process into the Field House, the couple is announced, then usually does something humorous in front of the school body, and finally processes across the Field House and onto the stage. As each couple is processing to the stage, an announcer states facts about the particular students. The entire procession of all twelve Royalty Court couples takes approximately five minutes.

28. The rest of the Pep Fest and Coronation Ceremony consists of the announcement of the Snow Days Queen and King, a fun activity, and various performances by the Dance Team and the winner of the Talent Show. In 2011, the assembly is scheduled to take place from 1:27 PM to 2:25 PM—a total of fifty-eight minutes.

29. Both Desiree and Sarah campaigned to be elected by their peers to be members of the Royalty Court so they could participate in the Pep Fest and Coronation procession together. Their intention was to make a political and public statement about gender roles and the visibility of LGBT students and couples at CPHS.

30. Both Desiree and Sarah were elected by their peers to the Snow Days Royalty Court.

31. When Desiree and Sarah found out that they had both been elected to the Royalty Court, they had every expectation that they would be able to process into the Field House as a couple and this was known among many students, CPHS staff, and administrators. Two male members of the senior Royalty Court have volunteered to process into the Field House together to maintain the couple format of the procession.

32. On Tuesday, January 25, Desiree and Sarah were in a CPHS hallway between classes when a teacher informed them that the CPHS administration decided that they could not process in the Pep Fest and Coronation together. The teacher informed them that they would be called to the office of the CPHS principal, Defendant George, for a further explanation.

33. After being notified of the administration's decision, Plaintiffs immediately sought out Mathew Mattson, CPHS Assistant Principal for Activities and a primary organizer of the Snow Days Week activities. Plaintiffs objected and asked why the decision was made. Mattson told them that they would not be allowed to process into the Field House as a couple because it is a tradition for only a boy and girl to process in together, that it would make the two male students who volunteered to process in together uncomfortable even if they had already agreed to do so, that Plaintiffs had been elected to the Royalty Court as individuals and not as a couple, and that it would make some students uncomfortable to see two women walking together as a couple. Mattson stated that he had discussed the matter with George, and Monica Nikko, the other staff organizer of Snow Days Week, and that they concurred with the decision. Mattson called George's office so that George could further discuss the matter with Plaintiffs, but George was not available at the time. Plaintiffs scheduled a meeting with George for the next day, Wednesday, January 26.

34. At 11:15 AM on Wednesday, January 26, Plaintiffs met with George along with a number of teachers. George heard from Plaintiffs as they explained why they wanted to process into the Field House together. He was primarily worried about how the rest of the student body would react to two women processing in together. He also told Plaintiffs that it was a tradition at CPHS to have only male-female couples processing together in the Pep Fest and Coronation Ceremony. George stated that a final decision had not yet been made because he wanted to consult with the Superintendent of the Anoka-Hennepin School District, Defendant Carlson, and other principals in the school district. A follow-up meeting was scheduled for after school on Thursday, January 27.

35. Later in the day on January 26, the administration was considering having all members of the Royalty Court process individually instead of as couples in response to Plaintiffs' intention to process into the Field House together.

36. After school on Thursday, January 27, Plaintiffs met with Mattson and George. George stated that after consulting with Carlson and other principals, the decision was made that the procession would be canceled and that the Pep Fest and Coronation would begin with all members of the Royalty Court seated on stage. George stated that this outcome would make everyone comfortable.

37. In this meeting, George further stated that even if the two male students who volunteered to process in together were comfortable with the arrangement, their parents may not be and he did not want to upset the parents. Mattson suggested that even if the male students stated that they were comfortable with the decision now, they may not be three months from now when a picture of them processing together surfaces and rumors get started that they are gay. Mattson hypothesized that they might then get bullied, commit suicide, and their parents would blame the school district.

38. Mr. George also stated that at a School Board meeting on January 24 a number of parents praised the school board for keeping the gays out of the schools and were otherwise hostile toward gays and lesbians. George suggested that this caused him to have concerns about student safety if he allowed Plaintiffs to process into the Pep Fest together.

39. Plaintiffs desire to participate in the procession together in order to peacefully express that they are lesbians and their political and social viewpoint that it is appropriate for gay and lesbian students to process together in long-standing school event.

40. The communicative content of this act would be understood by other students, as well as teachers and administrators, at the assembly.

41. If Plaintiffs are unable to participate together in the Fun Fest and Coronation procession on January 31, 2011, Plaintiffs will suffer irreparable harm for which there is no adequate remedy at law.

42. Defendants have expressed an intent to cancel the procession for the purpose of suppressing the viewpoint of Plaintiffs' constitutionally protected speech.

43. If Defendants are not enjoined from canceling or otherwise altering the Pep Fest in order to suppress Plaintiffs' speech, Plaintiffs will suffer irreparable harm for which there is no adequate remedy at law.

44. At all times, Defendants have acted under color of state law.
