Defendants' counsel met w/ the Board on 11/3/09 and thereafter submitted a written settlement proposal to plaintiff's counsel who has not yet responded. Plaintiff's counsel states that they will discuss settlement further, but will not accept the settlement proposal offered. Parties believe that the Consent Order is not being followed through, which has been causing problems at the school. Judge will hold a settlement conference w/ all parties present shortly. CRD will be providing counsel w/ tentative dates for this conference. Plaintiff's counsel has served initial written demands. Defendants' counsel will be responding and serving his initial written demands shortly. AP:: Corey Stoughton, Esq., Matthew Faiella, Esq., and Frank Miller, Esq. (sal,) (Entered: 11/06/2009)
11/13/2009		TEXT NOTICE of Hearing: A Settlement Conference is set for 12/18/2009 at 10:00 AM in Syracuse before Magistrate Judge David E. Peebles. At that conference the parties are directed to appear in person, through counsel and, unless specifically excused by the court prior to the time of the conference, by a representative of the party with full authority to enter into binding agreements on behalf of that party in connection with this litigation. In preparation for the scheduled settlement conference, not later than 12/8/09, the parties shall submit directly to Judge Peebles' chambers a short, concise statement setting forth the material facts of the case, together with an indication of which if any are disputed; providing a synopsis of the parties' respective legal positions concerning any issues presented in the case; and outlining any settlement discussions which have occurred. That confidential statement, which shall not be filed with the court clerk and need not be served upon opposing counsel, should also include an assessment of the strength and weaknesses of the party's position in the case together with a candid indication of the party's settlement position.(sal,) (Entered: 11/13/2009)

01/14/2010		TEXT Minute Entry for proceedings held before Magistrate Judge David E. Peebles: Status Conference held on 1/13/2010. Parties are still discussing settlement. Counsel for DOJ Civil Rights Division indicate that they are participating in this conference call today, since they may be filing a motion to intervene. Judge gives the DOJ permission to file this motion, however, he does not feel this conference call will be productive w/ them present on the call. Since they are not a party to this action, Judge dismisses them from the call. Parties further discuss settlement options w/ Judge Peebles. Judge stays the existing deadlines in this case. A telephone conference is set for 1/29/10 at 3:00 PM. Plaintiff's counsel is directed to initiate the call. Judge states that counsel for the DOJ are not to participate in this conference call absent permission from the court.
