CONSENT DECREE

1. On May 28, 2004, the Commission filed the lawsuit that is the subject of this Consent Decree. The Commission brought this action on behalf of Kimberly Peoples (“Ms. Peoples”), a female applicant seeking employment with Churpeyes of Alabama, LLC, d/b/a Church’s Chicken (“Churpeyes”). The Commission alleges that Churpeyes violated Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (“Title VII”), as amended, 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000e-2, 5(f)(1), and (3); and the Civil Rights Act of 1991 (“CRA”), 42 U.S.C. § 1981A. Specifically, the Commission alleges Ms. Peoples was unlawfully denied employment at Churpeyes’ Flomaton, Alabama, facility. The Commission alleges that Churpeyes failed to hire Ms. Peoples based on her pregnancy.

2. As a result of settlement discussions, the Commission and Churpeyes have resolved their differences and have agreed that this action should be settled by entry of this Consent Decree.

It is the intent of the parties that this Consent Decree be a final and binding settlement in full disposition of any and all claims alleged in the Complaint against Churpeyes.

STIPULATED FACTS

3. The Commission is the agency of the United States government authorized by Title VII and the Pregnancy Discrimination Act (hereinafter PDA) to investigate allegations of unlawful employment discrimination based on gender, to bring civil actions to prohibit unlawful practices, and to seek relief for individuals affected by such practices.
4. Pursuant to the Title VII, the parties acknowledge the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Alabama (Southern Division) over the subject matter and the parties to this case for the purpose of entering this Decree and, if necessary, enforcing this Decree.
5. Venue is appropriate in the Southern District of Alabama (Southern Division). For purposes of this Decree and any proceedings related to this Decree only, Churpeyes agrees that all statutory conditions precedent to the institution of this lawsuit against Churpeyes have been fulfilled.

FINDINGS

6. Having examined the terms and provisions of the Consent Decree and, based on the pleadings, records, and stipulations of the parties, the Court finds the following:
 - A. The Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of the action brought by the Commission against Churpeyes.
 - B. The terms and provisions of this Consent Decree are fair, reasonable, and just. The rights of Churpeyes and the Commission are adequately protected by this Decree.

- C. The Consent Decree conforms with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Title VII and is not in derogation of the rights and privileges of any person. The entry of this Consent Decree will further the objectives of Title VII and will be in the best interests of the parties.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

NON-ADMISSION

7. This Decree, being entered with the consent of the Commission and Churpeyes, shall not constitute an adjudication or finding on the merits of the case and shall not be construed as an admission by Churpeyes of any violation of Title VII, the PDA or any other, law, rule, or regulation dealing with or in connection with equal employment opportunity.

NON-DISCRIMINATION

8. Churpeyes, its officers, agents, employees, successors, assigns, and all persons in active concert or participation with them, shall comply with the provisions of Title VII and the PDA with regard to discrimination based on gender.

NON-RETALIATION

9. Churpeyes shall not take any action against any person which constitutes intimidation, retaliation, harassment or interference with the exercise of such person's rights under Title VII or the PDA because of the filing of Charge No. 131-2003-02624 with the Commission, which forms the basis for the present case, or because such person gave testimony or assistance or participated in any manner in any investigation or proceeding in connection with this case.

The Commission will return training materials, with comments and required changes, within thirty (30) days of the training session.

2. Churpeyes shall submit a sign-in roster of all participants in each of the training sessions along with the copies of the materials used for the training sessions.

POSTING OF NOTICE

13. Churpeyes agrees that it shall post a copy of the Notice attached as Attachment "A" in a conspicuous location at its Flomaton, Alabama, facility where employee notices are posted. The Notice shall be posted for 2 years from the date this decree is entered by the Court. Should the posted copy of the Notice become defaced, marred or otherwise made unreadable, Churpeyes agrees to immediately post a readable copy of the Notice.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION AND COMPLIANCE

14. The Court will retain all available equitable powers, including the power to order injunctive relief, to enforce this Decree. Upon motion of either party, the Court may schedule a hearing for the purpose of reviewing compliance with this Decree. The parties shall engage in a good faith effort to resolve any dispute as to compliance prior to seeking review by the Court, and shall be required to give notice to each other ten (10) days before moving for such review. Both parties may conduct expedited discovery under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for purposes of determining compliance with this Decree or defending against a claim of non-compliance, with fifteen (15) business days notice for depositions, entry to premises and access to documents and, with fifteen (15) business days for responses to written discovery.

COURT COSTS AND ATTORNEYS' FEES

15. Each party shall bear its own court costs and attorneys' fees.

17. The terms of the Consent Decree are and shall be binding upon the present and future owners, officers, directors, employees, creditors, agents, trustees, administrators, successors, representatives and assigns of Churpeyes.
18. Prior to entry of this Consent Decree by the Court, the Commission will deliver to Churpeyes a Release duly executed by the claimant in this case in the form attached hereto as Attachment "B."
19. This Consent Decree constitutes the entire agreement and commitments of the parties. Any modifications to this agreement must be mutually agreed upon and memorialized in a writing signed by Churpeyes and the Commission.
