14 EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY ) Case No.: Case No. C 07-4810 CRB
15 COMMISSION, )
16 Plaintiff, ) CONSENT DECREE AND ~~(PROPOSED)~~
17 vs. ) ORDER
19 AT&T, Inc., dba SBC Yellow Pages, )
20 Defendant. )

21 Plaintiff Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (“Commission” or “EEOC”)
22 brought this lawsuit under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and Title I of the Civil 23 Rights Act of 1991, to correct alleged unlawful employment practices on the basis of race
24 (African American) and to make whole Ms. June Riddick who the Commission alleged was 25 aggrieved by such practices. Plaintiff EEOC alleged that defendant Pacific Bell Directory d/b/a 26 AT&T Advertising & Publishing (named as “AT&T, Inc., dba SBC Yellow Pages” in the 27 Complaint) (“PBD”) unlawfully subjected Ms. Riddick to disparate treatment in the selection for 28 a promotion opportunity because of her race. PBD denied all the EEOC’s allegations, including that Ms. Riddick was subjected to disparate treatment, as well as the claim of damages or injuries.

In the interest of resolving the Lawsuit and as a result of comprehensive settlement negotiations, the Commission and Defendant PBD (hereinafter referred to as “the Parties”) have

1 agreed that this action should be resolved by entry of this Consent Decree. This Consent Decree
2 shall not constitute an adjudication and/or a finding on the merits of the Lawsuit. This resolution
3 does not constitute an admission of liability on the part of PBD, which expressly denies any 4 violation of law or wrongdoing. This Consent Decree represents a good faith settlement of 5 contested and disputed claims.

6 This Consent Decree resolves all claims arising out of EEOC Charge No. 37A 2004-
7 09149 and the complaint filed in the Lawsuit, and constitutes a complete and final resolution of 8 all claims of race discrimination under Title VII that were made or could have been made by the 9 Commission in this lawsuit, including class claims. This Consent Decree does not, however,
10 resolve any future charges or charges that may be pending with the EEOC other than the charge
11 and complaint specifically referenced in this paragraph. No waiver, modification or amendment
12 of any provision of this Consent Decree shall be effective unless made in writing and approved
13 by all the Parties to this Decree, and any substantive change, modification or amendment of any 14 provision of this Consent Decree shall also require approval by the Court.

15 The Court has reviewed this Consent Decree in light of the pleadings, the record herein, 16 and now approves this Consent Decree. THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND 17 DECREED:

18 I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 19 1. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter and the Parties to this Lawsuit.

4 alleged emotional distress within fourteen days of the entry of the Proposed Order
5 by the Court. Defendant shall provide the Commission with proof of this 6 disbursement of the settlement payment c/o Raymond T. Cheung, EEOC, 350 The 11 Collector opening in its Sacramento facility that it fills.

13 Defendant PBD shall revise, to the extent it determines necessary, its Equal 14 Employment Opportunity (“EEO”) policies, within sixty (60) days of signing the 15 Consent Decree, such that the policies: (i) affirms Defendant’s compliance with 16 Title VII; (ii) articulates Defendant’s commitment to racially neutral hiring policy
17 and practice; (iii) provide a clearly articulated process for employees to report

28 identifying Ms. Riddick by name or specifying the amount of settlement) shall be,
and remain, posted in a clearly visible location frequented by employees at Defendant’s Sacramento office until July 31, 2009.

9. Training of Employees.

1 Defendant AT&T, Inc. shall conduct a half-day training for all of its staffing
2 managers in California on equal employment hiring and promotion practices.

3 10. Training Logistics.

4 With respect to the training required by the above paragraph, Defendant agrees to 5 provide a description of each training program to counsel for the Commission no
6 later than twenty (20) days before the training programs are scheduled to be held.

7 If the Commission has not objected to the description of the training program
8 within seven (7) days of being given notice, such non-response shall be deemed 9 an acknowledgment that the Commission does not object to the form, nature and 10 content of the training.

11 11. Acknowledgment of Training Attendance.

12 All persons attending mandatory anti-discrimination training pursuant to this 13 Consent Decree shall acknowledge their attendance (through their hard copy or 14 electronic signature) at the training, the date thereof, and their position. PBD
15 shall retain these electronic verifications and provide the EEOC with a copy.

16 12. Training Reporting

17 Within thirty (30) days of completion of the training required by this Consent
18 Decree, PBD will send the EEOC verification of its completion of the equal 19 employment hiring and promotion training for its employees.

20 V. DISMISSAL WITHOUT PREJUDICE, RETENTION OF JURISDICTION, AND 21 EXPIRATION OF CONSENT DECREE

23 expiration of the Consent Decree as set forth in Paragraph 14 below, for an 24 extension of the Consent Decree because of noncompliance until July 31, 2009, if 25 the Commission determines that PBD has not complied with the terms of this 26 Consent Decree. If the Commission determines that PBD has not complied with 27 the Consent Decree, the Commission will provide written notification of the 28 alleged breach to Defendant and will not petition the Court for an extension of the Consent Decree sooner than thirty (30) days after providing written notification.
The thirty-day period following written notice shall be used by the parties for good faith efforts to resolve the issue. If the Commission successfully petitions the Court to extend the Consent Decree and the Court finds PBD to be in substantial violation of the terms of the Decree, the Court may extend this Consent Decree by another six (6) months.

- 14. Unless this Consent Decree if extended pursuant to Paragraph 13 above, one (1) year after the entry of this Consent Decree, it will expire and have no further force or effect, and this Lawsuit will be deemed to have been dismissed with prejudice without further action by the Parties and without further Court Order.
