No representations or inducements to compromise this action have been made, other than those recited or referenced in this Decree. No waiver, modification or amendment of any provision of this Decree shall be effective unless made in writing, approved by all parties to this Decree and approved or ordered by the Court.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Court having carefully examined the terms and provisions of this Consent Decree, and based on the pleadings

POSTED PURSUANT TO A CONSENT DECREE

This notice is being posted pursuant to a Consent Decree entered by the Court in EEOC vs. Associated Home Health of Palm Beach, Civil Action No.99-8434-CIV-HURLEY in the Southern District of Florida.

Under Section 102 of Title I of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990:

It shall be an unlawful employment practice for an employer:

(1) to limit, segregate, or classify a job applicant or employee in a way that adversely affects the opportunities or status of such applicant or employee because of the disability of such applicant or employee;

(2) to participate in a contractual or other agreement or relationship that has the effect of subjecting a covered entity's qualified applicant or employee with a disability to the discrimination prohibited by the ADA (such relationship includes a relationship with an employment or referral agency, labor union, an organization providing fringe benefits to an employee of the covered entity, or an organization providing training and apprenticeship programs);

(3) to utilize standards, criteria, or methods of administration -

(A) that have the effect of discrimination on the basis of disability; or

(B) that perpetuate the discrimination of others who are subject to common administrative control;

(4) to exclude or otherwise deny equal jobs or benefits to a qualified individual because of the known disability of an individual with whom the qualified individual is known to have a relationship or association;

(5) (A) to not make reasonable accommodations to the known physical or mental limitations of an otherwise qualified individual with a disability who is an applicant or employee, unless such covered entity can demonstrate that the accommodation would impose an undue hardship on the operation of the business of such covered entity; or

(B) to deny employment opportunities to a job applicant or employee who is an otherwise qualified individual with a disability, if such denial is based on the need of such covered entity to make reasonable accommodation to the physical or mental impairments of the employee or applicant;

(6) to use qualification standards, employment tests or other selection criteria that screen out or tend to screen out an individual with a disability or a class of individuals with disabilities unless the standard, test or other selection criteria, as used by the covered entity, is shown to be job-related for the position in question and is consistent with business necessity; and

(7) to fail to select and administer tests concerning employment in the most effective manner to ensure that, when such test is administered to a job applicant or employee who has a disability that impairs sensory, manual, or speaking skills, such test results accurately reflect the skills, aptitude, or whatever other factor of such applicant or employee that such test purports to measure, rather than reflecting the impaired sensory manual, or speaking skills of such employee or applicant (except where such skills are the factors that the test purports to measure).

Associated Home Health will not engage in any of the above acts or practices.

Associated Home Health will not discriminate or retaliate in any manner against any person because of opposition to any practice declared unlawful under the ADA or because of the filing of a charge, the giving of testimony or assistance, or the participation in any investigation, proceeding, or hearing under the ADA.

Associated Home Health will maintain and conduct all employment policies and practices in a manner which does not discriminate on the basis of disability or retaliation.

This notice shall remain posted for four years from the date signed. Employees or applicants for employment who have questions about their rights under the American with Disabilities Act of 1990 or any other federal anti-discrimination laws may telephone the Miami District Office of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission at 1-800-669-4000, (305) 530-6000 or (305)530-6007.
