UNITED STATES E.E.O.C.

ORDER

THIS CAUSE is before the Court on various pending motions. Having carefully considered the motions, the responses and replies thereto, the court file and applicable law, it is hereby

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED as follows:

(1) Defendant Mortgage Information Services, Inc.'s Motion to Compel the EEOC to Provide Better Responses to Discovery and for Fees and Costs (D.E. 47) filed on January 22, 2003 is GRANTED IN PART. Accordingly, the motion is granted in its entirety as to the discovery requested except that interrogatory 4 is limited to 1995 to the present. Further, defendant's request for fees and costs is denied.

(2) Defendant's Motion for a Protective Order Regarding the Production and Exchange of Proprietary, Commercial and Financial Documents (D.E. 49) filed on January 27, 2003 is GRANTED. The undersigned has, contemporaneously with the entry of this Order, entered a separate Protective Order.

(3) Plaintiff Equal Employment Opportunity Commission's Motion to Compel Discovery (D.E. 51) filed on January 31, 2003 is GRANTED. The undersigned notes that Defendant asserts in its motion to strike that it has already provided documents responsive to 2-4 and 2-5. To the extent these discovery requests have been produced, the motion is moot. Plaintiff EEOC agrees that production has been provided with regard to these requests. Therefore, the only outstanding discovery is 2-6. Accordingly, the undersigned hereby orders the production of all responsive documents to request for production 2-6 which the undersigned finds is reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Defendant shall produce these responsive documents within five (5) dates of the date of this Order.

(4) Defendant's Motion to Strike EEOC's Motion to Compel Discovery (D.E. 58)

filed on February 11, 2003 is DENIED AS MOOT in light of this Court's ruling in paragraph (3) of this Order.

DONE AND ORDERED in Chambers, at Miami, Florida this 23rd day of March , 2003.
