- (10)  [Other docket entry] Motion hearing held on EEOC's motion to compel, EEOC's motion to compel production of James Coiello documents and EEOC's emergency motion for a protective order. EEOC's motion to compel is granted as follows: Defendant to produce any additional sexual harassment complaints and dispositions thereof found in the 15 personnel files referred to in the thirteenth request for production of documents. EEOC's motion to compel production of James Coiello documents is denied based on counsel's representation that all documents related to the sexual harassment complaint and problems in the human resources department relating to the sexual harassment complaint have been produced. For reasons stated in open Court, EEOC's emergency motion for a protective order is denied.
