05/11/2004	107	MINUTE ORDER of 5/11/04 by Hon. Philip G. Reinhard: Defendant, Woodward Governor Co. objects per FRCP 72(a) to the magistrate judge's order of 3/17/04 ordering defendant to produce gender and age information for its employees. Defendant argues this discovery should have been denied because the magistrate did not require plaintiff to disclose the identity of the expert who advised the magistrate that the information was required for a proper analysis in this race discrimination case. Defendant says this denied it due process. A magistrate's ruling on a nondispositive pretrial matter may be reconsidered only if clearly erroneous or contrary to law. 28USC, 636(b)(1)(A); US v. Brown, 79 F.3d 1499, 1503 (7th cir.), cert. denied, 519 US 875 (1996). The record does not reflect defendant ever asked the magistrate for disclosure of the consultant by simply asked him to deny the request based on non-disclosure. The magistrate considered defendant's arguments and concluded the information was discoverable. It seems logical that a statistical analysis would require controlling of other factors to prove race was the basis for discrimination. The magistrate's ruling was not clearly erroneous or contrary to law. Defendant's objection is denied [97-1]. mailed notice (jat) (Entered: 05/12/2004)

08/31/2005	418	MEMORANDUM Opinion and Order Signed by Judge P. Michael Mahoney on 8/31/2005: For the reasons stated on the attached Memorandum Opinion and Order, the court grants plaintiffs' 8/22/05 motion to compel 396 in part and orders defendant to produce all documents responsive to plaintiffs' 5/2/05 document request. However, the court limits the production in two ways. First, the court gives defendant permission to redact the identifying information of private, non-governmental entities contained in documents produced. Second, the court grants defendant's 8/25/05 motion for a protective order 409 in part by restricting plaintiffs from releasing to private, non-governmental entities information and documents produced by defendant regarding certifications.
