04/19/2006	140	ORDER - IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that plaintiffs may select which of the cases are to be tried first and the remaining two cases in the order of their preference. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the three cases to be tried, if plaintiffs prefer, can be tried in sequence in that one may be tried first and when that case is submitted to a jury the second case can be tried and when that case is submitted to a jury, the third case can be tried so that the cases can be tried sequentially if desired. Otherwise, the cases can be tried on different dates. For the selection process, the Court offers the following dates as available: August 7, 2006; September 18, 2006; October 30, 2006. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the parties shall notify the Court if a Rule 16 Scheduling Order would be preferred. If so, the Court should be notified and a scheduling order will be issued; otherwise the Court suggests that the parties agree on one of the suggested trial dates and the methodology for conducting the trial, or if preferred, a telephone conference can be held between the Court and counsel for the purpose of resolving the trial date and any scheduling issues that need to be considered. In this connection, defendant has moved to amend the case management order but it would appear that the parties response to this order would be more appropriate before ruling on the motion to amend. re 134 , 137 .
