This matter came before the Court for trial by jury. The plaintiff, Equal Employment Opportunity Commission sought certain equitable relief as well as damages for employees John A. Warren, John C. Warren, and the Estate of Eddie Johnson, and John A. Warren and the Estate of Eddie Johnson intervened as plaintiffs. The jury has rendered its verdict for the defendant and against the plaintiff and plaintiff-intervenors. The Court finds that, accepting the findings of the jury as reflected by its verdict, the plaintiff is not entitled to equitable relief. Accordingly,

49B-12

au

IT IS ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that judgment is entered in favor of the defendant Crowder Construction Company and against the plaintiff, Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and plaintiff intervenors, John A. Warren and Estate of Eddie Johnson, on all claims, together with the taxable costs of this action. All pending motions in this case are now termed.

DATED this 31st day of January, 2003.
