

FY 2001 Major Litigation Highlights

During FY 2001, EEOC filed 430 lawsuits and resolved 360 lawsuits, resulting in monetary benefits of $51.2 million for victims of discrimination. Highlights include:

- An $8 million settlement with CBS Broadcasting, Inc. on behalf of approximately 200 female technicians at television stations across the country. The lawsuit alleged that CBS subjected the class to a pattern and practice of discrimination in regard to salary, overtime, promotions and training; created a hostile work environment that included sexual harassment; and retaliated against female employees for complaining about the discrimination.
