05/18/2010	283	ENDORSED LETTER addressed to Judge Kimba M. Wood from Bruce B. McHale dated 5/17/10 re: Accordingly, to complete the remand record, the parties and amicus request that the Court endorse this letter ordering that the Records Management Unit/Sealed Documents clerk receive previously-sealed trial exhibits and transcripts in paper form, and note their receipt on the docket, subject to the court's standard sealing restrictions. ENDORSEMENT: Granted. The Court realizes that the Sealed Records Office does not usually accept previously sealed exhibits and transcripts. 06/04/2010	289	ORDER that the Court declines to grant any extension of the schedule for the reply brief and the sur-reply brief. If the Court were to grant this extension, it would result in a four-week delay in this very aged case, because opposing counsel would then need an additional two weeks to prepare its sur-reply. Although the Court is sympathetic to counsels' competing burdens, this case needs to take precedence over other matters because of its age. (Signed by Judge Kimba M. 		monetary damages Plaintiffs are seeking. Plaintiffs contend that Defendant does not challenge the current class to the extent that it seeks injunctive/declaratory relief. Plaintiffs thus suggest that injunctive/declaratory relief can be separated out from any monetary relief, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure ("Rule") 23(c)(4). Plaintiffs are directed to specify the procedures that they believe should be followed to effectuate the relief they seek. Will all relief be accorded on a class-wide basis, or do Plaintiffs contemplate that back pay or any other form of individualized monetary relief will be adjudicated on an individual basis? 09/26/2012	320	Letter addressed to Judge Kimba M. Wood from Joshua S. Sohn dated 10/14/2011 re: We represent the plaintiff class in this action. Pursuant to the Court's October 3, 2011 Order, we write to address the following questions posed by the Court: (1) what declaratory and injunctive relief is the plaintiff class seeking; (2) what monetary relief is the plaintiff class seeking; and (3) will all damages be assessed on a class-wide basis or will monetary damages be assessed on an individual basis. (rjm) (Entered: 09/26/2012)
12/05/2012	321	OPINION AND ORDER: #102658 For the reasons set forth above, the Court grants in part and denies in part Defendant's motion to decertify the Plaintiff class. The class survives only as to the declaratory judgment of the Board's liability under Title VII (contained in this Opinion), and injunctive relief benefitting the class as a whole. With respect to the Board's liability, the Court finds that: (1) the Board may be subject to Title VII liability for its use of the LAST; (2) the Board violated Title VII by requiring Plaintiffs to pass the exam in order to receive a permanent teaching license because the LAST was not properly validated; and (3) the Board did not violate Title VII by reducing Plaintiffs' salaries, benefits, and seniority for failing to pass the Core Battery exam. The Court will hold a status conference in this case on January 10, 2013, at 2:00 p.m. in Courtroom 18B. Plaintiffs are directed to submit a letter to the Court by December 13, 2012 identifying what steps need to be taken in the remedial phase of this action. Defendant is directed to reply to Plaintiffs' submission by December 20, 2012. (Signed by Judge Kimba M. Wood on 12/04/2012) (ago) Modified on 12/11/2012 (jab). (Entered: 12/05/2012)

03/19/2013	333	ENDORSED LETTER addressed to Judge Kimba M. Wood from Eamonn F. Foley dated 3/18/2013 re: Counsel writes to request that the Court enter an order permitting BOE to obtain from plaintiffs certain limited discovery, which BOE needs in order to appropriately assess and respond to plaintiffs' motion for certification of a damages class under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23. In addition, in order to permit a reasonable period of time for this discovery to take place, BOE also requests a thirty day extension of the date for service of their opposition papers on the class certification motion, from March 25, 2013, to April 24, 2013. ENDORSEMENT: BOEs counsel should have requested leave to redepose Mr. Wilds over three weeks ago. The Court is concerned that the Corporation Counsels Office is not doing what is necessary in this 16-year old case, to move the case along. The Court will nonetheless grant a twenty (20) day extension for discovery, in order for the Court to have before it the facts necessary to adjudicate the case. Assistant Corporation Counsel Foley is directed to show this Memo Endorsement to Corporation Counsel Cardozo. The Court does not need an explanation for any of the all too numerous delays to date. The Court needs adequate staffing on this case from today forward. (Signed by Judge Kimba M. Wood on 3/19/2013) (ft) (Entered: 03/19/2013)

07/17/2014	466	MEMO ENDORSEMENT on re: 460 Letter, filed by Board of Education of the New York City School District of the City of New York. ENDORSEMENT: The Court notes Defendant's objections to the Special Master's scheduling plan. See Dkt. No. 461. They are overruled, except that the Court agrees with Defendant's position, stated on pagethree of the attached chart, that the parties be permitted to take depositions prior to individualized hearings. Given the age of this case, individualized relief should proceed as expeditiously as practicable. And the burden of the tight schedule falls equally on the parties and claimants. The short time frame given to Defendant to make targeted discovery requests, for example, is consistent with the similarly short time frame given to claimants to respond to Defendant's discovery requests. SO ORDERED. (Signed by Judge Kimba M. Wood on 7/17/2014) (ajs) (Entered: 07/17/2014)
07/17/2014	467	ORDER re: 466 Memo Endorsement. Previously today, in a memo endorsement, the Court overruled Defendant's objections to the Special Master's scheduling plan, with the exception of Defendant's objection to the limitation on pre-hearing depositions. See Dkt. No. 466. Upon further consideration, the Court hereby overrules all of Defendant's objections to the Special Master's scheduling plan. The Court concludes that considerations of judicial economy warrant taking testimony only once, at what the scheduling plan refers to as "trial depositions," see Dkt. No. 461 Paragraph III.C.1, unless good cause is shown for taking additional depositions. (Signed by Judge Kimba M. Wood on 7/17/2014) (cd) (Entered: 07/18/2014)

A claimant may cure any deficiency in his or her claim form up to the date set for pretrial submissions for that claimant. In the event a claimant seeks to cure deficiencies more than four times, the claimant must seek leave from the Special Master if the opposing party does not consent. If the Garden City Group (GCO) identifies conflicts between a claimant's submissions, it will contact Plaintiffs' counsel, who may instruct GCG how to resolve the conflict as to what data should be entered into the system. 03/17/2015	568	ORDER: The subpoena requires the NYSED's compliance by March 11, 2015. The NYSED contends that the work required to comply with the subpoena is too extensive to complete in the time allotted and has asked the Court for an extension to May 8, 2015. The Court agrees that the NYSED should be given more time to comply with Plaintiffs' subpoena, but does not believe NYSED needs until May 8, 2015 to do so. Accordingly, NYSED shall comply with Plaintiffs' February 25, 2015 subpoena by April 6, 2015. SO ORDERED. (Signed by Judge Kimba M. Wood on 3/17/2015) (kl) (Entered: 03/17/2015)
03/17/2015	569	ORDER. A hearing regarding Dr. Outtz's report on the validity of the LAST-2 will be held on March 20, 2015. The parties and Dr. Outtz should come to the conference prepared to discuss the following topics: (1) The use of the LAST in assessing the knowledge, skills, and abilities of every New York City public school teacher, including teachers as different from one another as, e.g., kindergarten teachers, fifth grade music teachers, and twelfth grade advanced biology teachers; a. Are there common areas of knowledge that all New York City public school teachers should have? b. If so, were these areas of knowledge identified during the LAST validation process? c. If so, please be prepared to describe those areas of knowledge in detail. (2) The definition of a "job task"; (3) The extent to which a job analysis assesses the content in other words, knowledge required to adequately perform a job, versus the extent to which it assesses the required behavioral tasks e.g., drawing up a lesson plan, or grading students. The parties should also come prepared to discuss the November 24, 2014 injunction entered by the Court. [ECF No. 530]. Specifically, does paragraph 2(a) require class members to have met all certification requirements other than passage of the LAST during the time the LAST was administered, or can class members continue to fulfill those other requirements currently? 03/23/2015	571	STIPULATION AND ORDER: IT IS THEREFORE STIPULATED THAT Although the DOE may have some knowledge of some or all of the above factors, the parties agree, and the Special Master concurs, that the DOE will not need to raise the above factors before the Special Master in order to preserve the DOE's right to consider these factors in the normal course of the DOE's business when the DOE considers whether to make the claimant an offer of employment as teacher. The DOE will not raise any of the above factors as a defense or offset to the claims for monetary relief by any claimants in this case, except to the extent that any of these factors were actually the basis of a (1) for-cause termination, or (2) the initiation of a termination proceeding or a disciplinary or investigatory proceeding that allegedly would have resulted in the claimant's inevitable termination. The DOE will not raise any of the above factors as a basis to argue that a claimant has not fulfilled the necessary requirements to be deemed State certified pursuant to the Court's Order of November 24, 2014. Except as limited by the Court's Order of November 24, 2014, nothing herein is intended to limit the DOE's discretion in deciding whether to offer a claimant employment as teacher. This Order is not intended to, nor shall it serve to, limit a party's right to conduct a review of documents or materials, ESI or information (including metadata) for relevance, responsiveness and/or segregation of privileged and/or protected information before production. 04/03/2015	579	ORDER: On March 30, 2015, the Court issued an Order setting a schedule for assessing the validity of the Academic Literacy Skills Test ("ALST"). On April 1, 2015, the SED submitted a letter to the Court in opposition to the entirety of the Court's Order. For reasons that will be detailed in a forthcoming Opinion and Order, the Court is unpersuaded by the SED's arguments. With one exception, the Courts Order shall stand. Accordingly, the SED's request that all briefing and hearing deadlines be extended by thirty days is DENIED. However, the Court will extend the deadline to provide Dr. Outtz with all necessary ALST documentation; the SED shall provide Dr. Outtz with the documentation he requests by Friday, April 10, at 5 p.m. Attached to this Order is a list of the specific documents Dr. Outtz needs to complete his review of the ALST. 11/22/2017	927	ORDER: The Court agrees with the Special Master that Ms. Vidal's September 27 Objection does not provide further evidence that the Letter is genuine. To date, therefore, Ms. Vidal has not provided sufficient evidence that she failed the LAST exam. The Court also notes that neither Plaintiffs nor Defendants are aware of any basis for arguing that Ms. Vidal should be part of the class. (ECF No. 924, at 5.) For these reasons, the Court overrules Ms. Vidal's September 27 Objection and fully adopts the Special Master's August 30 and October 26 Reports. Accordingly, the Court adheres to its April 12, 2017 Order dismissing Ms. Vidal from the class. The Court will not entertain further submissions from Ms. Vidal on this issue. 12/14/2018	1009	STIPULATION OF CLASSWIDE FACTS AND PROCEDURES: Defendant, the Board of Education of the City School District of the City of New York ("BOE"), and Plaintiffs (collectively, the "Parties") stipulate that the following facts should be included in the trial record and accepted into evidence without further proof or testimony: A. Hiring Procedure for State Certified Teacher Candidates – Since 1996, teacher candidates who had been convicted of or pleaded guilty to an offense, including felonies, misdemeanors and violations, were not automatically disqualified from becoming New York City Public School teachers. B. PPT Licensing 1. Preparatory Provisional Teachers ("PPTs") were full–time classroom teachers who had not fulfilled all of the requirements for New York State Education Department ("SED") certification. They were hired to fill vacancies in schools where no certified teacher was available. PPTs were required to be nominated by principals and approved by superintendents, receive satisfactory evaluations, and make demonstrated progress toward completion of SED certification requirements to renew their PPT certificates each year. Many PPTs taught the same students as regularly appointed teachers and the same subjects for years. PPTs earned the same salaries as regularly appointed teachers with the same years of service until they reached salary–step 4A. PPTs could not advance beyond salary–step 4A. PPTs with more than twelve months of BOE teaching experience after achieving salary–step 4A earned lower salaries than regularly appointed teachers with the same years of credited service. PPTs did not receive the same benefits as regularly appointed teachers. (As further set forth in this stipulation) On the recommendation of the Special Master. So ordered. (Signed by Judge Kimba M. Wood on 12/14/2018) (ne) (Entered: 12/14/2018)

The Parties further stipulate that: (1) exhibits designated "(BR)" in the following list are records of regularly conducted activity or public records, as contemplated by Federal Rule of Evidence 803, and kept in the ordinary course by the businesses or agencies that produced them; (2) Exhibit EE designated "(SED BR)" in the following list can be admitted into evidence as a business record of the New York State Education Department; and (3) Exhibit FF designated "(Pearson BR)" in the following list can be admitted into evidence as a business record of Pearson Education, Inc. (As further set forth in this stipulation) On the recommendation of the Special Master. So ordered.
