10/08/2015	431	DISCOVERY PLAN ORDER: IT IS ORDERED THAT: 1. Representative discovery regarding certification/decertification of the collective shall be used. 2. The percentage of the collective that shall provide written discovery responses is set at fifteen percent (15%). a. The parties shall meet and confer regarding the scope, content and form of written discovery. 3. The members of the collective who will provide discovery shall be selected as follows: 50% by Defendant with the remainder (50%) selected randomly. a. Absent parties' agreement, the selection process need not account for witnesses' job titles, locations or divisions. Plaintiffs may use supplemental discovery (as limited by paragraph 4) if they do not feel that the initial selection yields a representative assortment. 4. Plaintiffs may supplement the written discovery provided in paragraph 3 with written discovery from additional members of the collective, but this number shall not exceed Defendant's number. In other words, at no point will greater than twenty-two and one-half percent (22.5%) of the collective provide written discovery responses. 5. Considering the responses to the document demands and interrogatories, the parties shall confer and seek to agree on which members of the collective providing written discovery will be deposed. 10/16/2015	436	ORDER: It is hereby ORDERED that the Court's equitable tolling orders' effect on claims brought by Barbara Lam, Sherri Avara and Anita Lakha Virji is as follows: The Court-authorized consent to join form informed potential opt-in plaintiffs that the "form must be postmarked, faxed or e-mailed by January 31, 2015." Plaintiff's letter states only that Lam, Avara and Virji "mailed" their forms in a timely manner, but due to "postal error" or "postal delay" the forms were either delivered or postmarked after the deadline. Whether or not the statute of limitations is tolled as to these claims depends on whether Lam, Avara and Virji were in fact diligent in attempting to comply with the form's requirements. Equitable tolling will apply if Plaintiffs can show that the delay in delivering or postmarking these forms was through no fault of their own. Plaintiffs shall provide Defendant with evidence of these individuals' diligence within a timeframe the parties shall agree upon. If upon review of these submissions Defendant believes the explanations to be insufficient, the parties shall file a joint letter articulating their positions as to each plaintiff in dispute. It is further ORDERED that equitable tolling shall apply to the claims of Elizabeth Barker and Yukiko Miura, as the parties have stipulated that for these individuals the delays were caused either by counsels error or because the notice was sent to an incorrect address. (As further set forth in this Order.) (Signed by Judge Lorna G. Schofield on 10/16/2015) (kgo) Modified on 10/16/2015 (kgo). (Entered: 10/16/2015)

07/24/2017	674	ORDER: It is hereby ORDERED that, without knowing what the evidence at issue is or how it is necessary, or how it differs from the evidence on many subjects that Plaintiffs assert that KPMG should update, KPMG has failed to meet its burden and the motion is DENIED. The parties are reminded and cautioned that Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(e) requires updating, regardless of the status of discovery (closed, bifurcated, stayed etc.), "in a timely manner if the party learns that in some material respect the disclosure or response is incomplete or incorrect...." The parties, and the Court, may reasonably expect that in the absence of updating, the prior responses are not materially incomplete or incorrect. (Signed by Judge Lorna G. Schofield on 7/24/2017) (kgo) (Entered: 07/24/2017)
