CIVIL ACTION NO. 04:cv-4523

CONSENT DECREE

Introduction

A. This action was instituted by the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("the EEOC" or "the Commission") on or about September 27, 2004 against Dine, Inc. d/b/a Silk City Diner, Inc. ("Silk City Diner" or "Defendant") to enforce provisions of Title VII of the Civil Rights of 1964, as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e et seq. ("Title VII"). In its Complaint, the Commission alleged that Defendant's co-owner subjected Charging Party to sexually explicit comments and conduct which created a sexually hostile and offensive work environment for her as a female. The Commission further alleged that Silk City Diner failed to undertake any remedial action to stop the offensive and discriminatory conduct and, in fact, retaliated against the Charging Party after she complained of the offensive conduct to both Defendant's co-owner and to her supervisor. EEOC alleges that as a result of the sexual harassment and retaliatory behavior, the Charging Party was forced to resign from her employment and was constructively discharged from her position as a waitress. EEOC alleges that she suffered severe emotional distress and damages as a result of the aforementioned illegal conduct of the Defendant. Defendant denies any liability.

B. This Consent Decree is entered into by and shall be final and binding between the EEOC and Silk City Diner, its directors, officers, agents, successors and assigns.

C. The Commission and Defendant agree to the entry of this Consent Decree, which shall fully and finally resolve all claims the EEOC raised in its Complaint in Civil Action No. 04-cv-4523 (LFS). This Consent Decree shall not constitute either an adjudication of or finding on the merits of the complaint and shall not be construed as an admission by Defendant of any violation of Title VII.

Findings

D. Having carefully examined the terms and provisions of this Consent Decree, and based on the pleadings, record and stipulations of the parties, the Court finds: (1) it has jurisdiction of the parties and subject matter jurisdiction of this action; and (2) the terms of this Decree are fair, reasonable, equitable and just, and adequately protect the rights of the parties, and the public interest. NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

Non-Discrimination and Non-Retaliation

1. This Court has jurisdiction over the parties and subject matter of this action.
2. Defendant will not harass any employee on the basis of sex in violation of Title VII.

3. Defendant will not engage in any employment practices which retaliate in any manner against any person, including but not limited to Jaime Mohn, because of that person's opposition to any practice made an unlawful employment practice under Title VII or because that person has made a charge, testified, assisted or participated in any manner in an investigation, proceeding or hearing under Title VII.

4. Defendant shall only divulge to any identifiable employer or potential employer of Jaime Mohn, Ms. Mohn's start date, position title, final salary and end date and indicate that such limited disclosure is part of its business practice.

5. Nothing in this Consent Decree, either by inclusion or exclusion, shall be construed to limit the obligations of Defendant under Title VII or the EEOC's authority to process or litigate any charge of discrimination now pending or filed in the future against Defendant.

Monetary Relief

6. No later than 15 days after receipt of a Release executed by Ms. Mohn, Defendant agrees to pay monetary relief in the amount of twenty-two thousand five hundred dollars ($22,500.00) to Jaime Mohn, in full settlement of the claim raised on her behalf against Defendant in the EEOC's Complaint. The check will be mailed to Jaime Mohn at her residence and a copy within five business days thereafter to the attention of Stephanie Marino, Trial Attorney, EEOC, 21 South Fifth Street, Suite 400, Philadelphia, PA 19106-2515. In order to receive this monetary relief, Ms. Mohn must execute a Release, as negotiated separately through her private counsel. Late payment of the check will be subject to the accrual of interest on the unpaid amount, calculated pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1961.

The Notice shall remain posted for two (2) years from the date of entry of this Decree. Defendant shall forward a certification that the Notice has been posted and dates of posting within 30 days after entry of this Decree to Stephanie Marino, Trial Attorney, EEOC, 21 South Fifth Street Suite 400, Philadelphia, PA 19106-2515. (e) provide for discipline up to and including discharge of an employee or supervisor who violates Defendant's policy or policies against discrimination, harassment and retaliation, and for increasingly severe discipline of repeat offenders.

9. Defendant shall distribute to all of its employees and newly-hired employees, its policy or policies against discrimination, harassment and retaliation within 60 days after entry of this Consent Decree.

10. Within 60 days after entry of this Consent Decree, Defendant shall advise Stephanie Marino, Trial Attorney, EEOC's Philadelphia District Office, that its policy or policies against discrimination, harassment and retaliation have been distributed to current employees, including temporary employees, via paycheck enclosure and that new employees, including temporary employees, will receive these policies and an opportunity to acknowledge receipt. Defendant will retain copies of any acknowledgment of receipt form for an employee in the employee's personnel file.

11. Defendant shall annually for the duration of the Consent Decree send a copy of its policy or policies against discrimination, harassment and retaliation with each employee's paycheck.

Supervisor Accountability

12. Defendant shall promote supervisor accountability by the following conduct:

(a) providing annual anti-discrimination training to all of its supervisory and managerial personnel as set forth in Paragraphs 13;

(b) disciplining, up to and including discharge, any supervisor or manager who violates Defendant's policy or policies against discrimination, harassment and retaliation; and obligations under both Title VII and relevant state or local anti-discrimination laws, and will emphasize what constitutes unlawful harassment and discrimination in the workplace, how to keep the company free from such discrimination, what constitutes unlawful retaliation, and will summarize how to conduct a prompt and effective investigation into allegations, complaints or charges of discrimination;

(b) Defendant shall first provide training in accordance with Paragraph 13(a) by no later than 120 calendar days after entry of this Consent Decree and also shall provide such training in calendar years 2006 and 2007.

14. Defendant shall obtain the EEOC's approval of its proposed trainer prior to each year's training sessions.

15. Defendants agree at its expense to provide the EEOC with copies of all pamphlets, brochures, outlines or other written materials provided to attendees of training sessions. Even though the EEOC has approved of or designated a trainer to provide training for one year, it is not required to approve of or designate the same trainer for future training sessions.

16. Defendant shall certify to the EEOC in writing within 10 business days after the training sessions required by Paragraph 13 have occurred that the training has taken place and the personnel who attended. Such certification shall include: (i) the dates, location and duration of the training session; (ii) a copy of the registry of attendance, including the name and position of each person in attendance; and (iii) a listing of the employee or employees at Silk City Diner's work site(s), responsible for responding to Title VII complaints made at Silk City Diner as of the date of the training.

In the event either party to this Decree believes the other party has failed to comply with any provision(s) of the Decree, the complaining party shall notify the other party of the alleged non-compliance within 20 days of the alleged non-compliance and afford the alleged non-complying party 20 business days to remedy the non-compliance or satisfy the complaining party that the alleged non-complying party has complied. If the alleged non-complying party has not remedied the alleged non-compliance or satisfied the complaining party that it has complied within 20 business days, the complaining party may apply to the Court for appropriate relief.

Miscellaneous Provisions

19. Each party to this Decree shall bear its own expenses, costs and attorneys' fees.

20. The terms of this Decree are and shall be binding upon the present and future representatives, agents, directors, officers, successors and assigns of Defendant in their capacities as representatives, agents, directors and officers of Defendant and not in their individual capacities. This paragraph shall not be construed as placing any limit on remedies available to the Court in the event any individual is found in contempt for a violation of this Decree.

21. This Consent Decree shall fully and finally resolve all claims which were raised by the EEOC in its Complaint in Civil Action No. 04-4523.

22. This Consent Decree shall be filed in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania and shall continue in effect for two (2) years. During this time, this Court shall retain jurisdiction over this matter and the parties for purposes of enforcing compliance with the Decree, including issuing such orders as may be required to effectuate its purposes. Any application by any party to modify or vacate this Consent Decree during such period shall be made by motion to the Court on no less than 30 days' notice to the other party. Should any material disputes under this Decree remain unresolved after this two-year period, the term of the Decree shall be automatically extended (and the Court will retain jurisdiction of this matter to enforce the Consent Decree) until such time as all disputes have been resolved.

23. The Clerk of the District Court is hereby directed to send a file-stamped copy of this Consent Decree to counsel of record.

EXHIBIT A

NOTICE TO ALL SILK CITY DINER, INC. EMPLOYEES

This Notice is posted pursuant to a Consent Decree entered by the federal court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania in EEOC v. Dine, Inc. d/b/a Silk City Diner, Inc., Civil Action Number 04-cv-4523, resolving a lawsuit filed by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC") against Dine, Inc. d/b/a Silk City Diner, Inc., ("Silk City Diner").

Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e et seq., as amended ("Title VII"), prohibits discrimination against employees and applicants for employment based upon national origin, sex, race, color or religion. Title VII further prohibits retaliation against employees or applicants who avail themselves of their rights under Title VII by engaging in protected activities, such as filing a charge of discrimination and/or testifying or participating in a Commission investigation. The EEOC is the federal agency which investigates charges of unlawful employment discrimination. The EEOC has the authority to bring lawsuits in federal court to enforce Title VII.

In its lawsuit, the EEOC alleged that Silk City Diner subjected an employee to harassment based on sex, causing the employee to constructively discharge, in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 ("Title VII").

To resolve the case, Silk City Diner and the EEOC have entered into a Consent Decree which provided, among other things, that: (1) Silk City Diner agrees that it will not discriminate on the basis of sex in the future; (2) Silk City Diner will not retaliate against any person because he or she opposed any practice made unlawful by Title VII, filed a Title VII charge of discrimination, participated in any Title VII proceeding, or asserted any rights under the Consent Decree; and (3) Silk City Diner will train any employee or employees at Silk City Diner's work sites with responsibility for responding to Title VII complaints made at Silk City Diner, regarding discrimination, harassment and retaliation, and regarding its policy prohibiting discrimination, harassment and retaliation.

If you believe you have been discriminated against, you may contact the EEOC at (215) 440-2600. The EEOC charges no fees and has employees who speak languages other than English.

THIS IS AN OFFICIAL NOTICE AND MUST NOT BE DEFACED BY ANYONE

This Notice must remain posted for two (2) years from the date below and must not be altered, defaced or covered by any other material. Any questions about this Notice or compliance with its terms may be directed to the Regional Attorney, EEOC Philadelphia District Office, 21 South 5th Street, Philadelphia, PA 19106.
