NATURE OF ACTION

This is an action under Title I of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 and Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1991, to correct unlawful employment practices on the basis of disability, and to provide appropriate relief to Michael Sepulveda, who was adversely affected by such practices. As stated with greater particularity in paragraph 8 below, the Equal Opportunity Commission (hereinafter “EEOC” or “the Commission”) alleges that Defendant, Lausell, Inc. (hereinafter “Lausell”), failed to provide Michael Sepulveda, a qualified individual with a disability, with a reasonable accommodation. The Commission further alleges that Michael Sepulveda was terminated by Defendant because of his disability.

2. The employment practices alleged to be unlawful were committed within the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the District of Puerto Rico.

4. At all relevant times, Defendant Lausell has been a Puerto Rico corporation doing business in Toa Baja and Bayamon, Puerto Rico, and has continuously had at least 15 employees.

5. At all relevant times, Defendant Lausell has continuously been an employer engaged in an industry affecting commerce under Section 101 (5) of the ADA, 42 U.S.C. § 12111 (5), and Section 101 (7) of the ADA, 42 U.S.C. § 12111 (7), which incorporates by reference Sections 701 (g) and (h) of Title VII, 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000e (g) and (h).

6. At all relevant times, Defendant has been a covered entity under Section 101 (2) of the ADA, 42 U.S.C. § 12111 (2).

STATEMENT OF CLAIMS

7. More than thirty days prior to the institution of this lawsuit, Michael Sepulveda filed a charge with the Commission alleging violations of Title I of the ADA by Defendant Lausell. All conditions precedent to the institution of this lawsuit have been fulfilled.

8. Since at least March 2004, Defendant Lausell has engaged in unlawful employment practices at its Bayamon, Puerto Rico, facility, in violation of Section 102 of Title I of the ADA, 42 U.S.C. § 12112:

- a) Michael Sepulveda is an individual with a disability under the ADA in that he has juvenile insulin-dependent diabetes Type I which substantially limits him in major life activities including eating, concentrating, and thinking.
- b) Michael Sepulveda requested that Defendant Lausell provide him with a reasonable accommodation for his disability; to take breaks as necessary to ingest food or take insulin. Defendant Lausell refused to provide Mr. Sepulveda with any reasonable accommodation for his disability. As a result, Mr. Sepulveda's condition worsened.
- c) Defendant Lausell terminated Mr. Sepulveda because of his disability.

9. The effect of the practices complained of in paragraph 8 above has been to deprive Michael Sepulveda of equal employment opportunities and otherwise adversely affect his status as an employment because of his disability.

10. The unlawful employment practices complained of in paragraph 8 above were intentional.

11. The unlawful employment practices complained of in paragraph 8 above were done with malice and/or with reckless indifference to the federally protected rights of Michael Sepulveda.

F. Order Defendant Lausell to pay punitive damages for its malicious and/or reckless conduct, as described in paragraph 8 above, in amounts to be determined at trial.
