et seq. ("Title VII"), and Section 102 of the Civil Rights Act of 1991, 42 U.S.C. § 1981(A).

STATEMENT OF CLAIMS

9. More than thirty days prior to the institution of this lawsuit, Willuweit and Miles filed charges with the Commission alleging violations of Title VII by Defendant Employers. All conditions precedent to the institution of this lawsuit have been fulfilled.

10. Since at least November, 1993, Defendant Employers have individually and jointly engaged in unlawful employment practices at its Sioux Falls facility, in violation of Sections 703(a)(1) and 704(a) of Title VII, 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000e-2(a)(1) and 3(a). Such unlawful employment practices have included the subjecting of Willuweit and Miles to a sexually hostile work environment.

11. In or about January of 1993, Defendant Taco Bell, Inc. hired Defendant Double-D, Inc. to oversee or manage the Taco Bell Express Units. The relationship between the Defendants was informal and there is no written contract between the Defendants. At all relevant times Taco Bell, Inc. owned the Taco Express Units.

12. Willuweit was hired by Taco Bell Express in November of 1993. Throughout her employment Willuweit was sexually harassed by her Manager, Scott Larson. Specifically, Larson used offensive language and engaged in unwelcome touching. Further, on a daily basis Larson discussed his sex life with Willuweit. This sexual harassment continued until approximately March 1994 when Willuweit transferred to another store. On July 14, 1994, Willuweit filed a charge of discrimination with the Sioux Falls Human Rights Commission.

13. Miles was hired by Taco Bell Express on about November 1993. Larson sexually harassed Miles on virtually a daily basis. Specifically, Larson would unsnap her bra and pull it from under her shirt. Further, Larson made constant sexual innuendos and suggestions. On May 25, 1994, Miles filed her charge of discrimination with the Sioux Falls Human Relations Commission.

14. The effect of the practices complained of above has been to deprive Willuweit and Miles of equal employment opportunities and otherwise adversely affect their status as employees because of their sex.

15. The unlawful employment practices complained of in paragraphs 10-13 were intentional.

16. The unlawful employment practices complained of in paragraphs 10-13 were done with malice or with reckless indifference to the federally protected rights of Willuweit and Miles.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Wherefore, the Commission respectfully requests that this Court:

A. Grant a permanent injunction enjoining Defendant Employers, its officers, successors, assigns and all persons in active concert or participation with it, from engaging in any employment practice which discriminates on the basis of sex.

B. Order Defendant Employers to institute and carry out policies, practices and programs which provide equal employment opportunities for women, and which eradicate the effects of its past and present unlawful employment practices.

C. Order Defendant Employers to make whole Willuweit and Miles, by providing appropriate backpay with prejudgment interest, in amounts to be determined at trial, and other affirmative relief necessary to eradicate the effects of its unlawful employment practices, including but not limited to, rightful-place reinstatement or front pay where appropriate for Willuweit and Miles.

D. Order Defendant Employers to make whole Willuweit and Miles, by providing compensation for past and future pecuniary losses resulting from the unlawful employment practices described in paragraphs 10-13 above, including but not limited to job search expenses and any medical expenses not covered by the Employer's employee benefit plan, in amounts to be determined at trial.

E. Order Defendant Employers to make whole Willuweit and Miles by providing compensation for past and future nonpecuniary losses resulting from the unlawful practices complained of in paragraphs 10-13 above, including emotional pain, suffering, inconvenience, loss of enjoyment of life, and humiliation, in amounts to be determined at trial.

F. Order Defendant Employers to pay Willuweit and Miles punitive damages for its malicious and reckless conduct described in paragraphs 10-13 above, in amounts to be determined at trial.

G. Grant such further relief as the Court deems necessary and proper.

H. Award the Commission its costs in this action.
