ORDER

On this day came on to be considered Plaintiff's motion to compel filed on December 8, 1999 and Defendant's response filed on December 13, 1999, and having considered the discovery at issue and the relevant pleadings,

IT IS ORDERED that Plaintiff's motion is granted in part as follows:

On or before January 6, 2000, Defendant will serve supplemental answers to Plaintiff's interrogatories 11 and 12 providing a recitation of facts and identifying any documents on which Defendant relies to support the respective "affirmative defenses" identified in the interrogatories. Defendant may, where appropriate, refer Plaintiff to deposition excerpts where such information has been previously provided.

On or before January 6, 2000, Defendant will make available for inspection the documents called for in Plaintiff's Requests 3, 11, 12 and 20. Defendant will also produce documents called for in Request 21 - but limited to the most recent documents which reflect or relate to Defendant's current net worth.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that any documents and the contents thereof produced in response to Request 3 except for those which pertain to Minerva Luna will be disclosed only to Plaintiff's counsel, unless further disclosure is authorized by agreement or on further order of the the court.

Except as granted above, Plaintiff's motion is denied.

A copy of this order shall be transmitted to counsel for the parties.

ENTERED this 29th day of December, 1999.
