CONSENT DECREE

ANGELA MEJIA,

Plaintiff-Intervenor,

v.

ABM INDUSTRIES INCORPORATED
 and AMERICAN BUILDING
 MAINTENANCE CO.-WEST, d/b/a
 ABM JANITORIAL SERVICES

Defendants.

I. INTRODUCTION

1. The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC" or "the Commission") filed this action on September 27, 2000 under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, and Title I of the Civil Rights Act of 1991 ("Title VII") to correct unlawful employment practices on the basis of sex and retaliation, and to provide appropriate relief to Angela Mejia who was allegedly adversely affected by such practices.

1 2. On December 13, 2000, the Court granted Angela Mejia ("Ms. Mejia"
2 or "Plaintiff-Intervenor"), the right to intervene as a party Plaintiff to assert
3 individual claims under Title VII and Washington state law.

4 3. On May 18, 2001, the Court granted the parties' joint stipulation to 5 allow the EEOC and Plaintiff-Intervenor to amend their complaints to add as
6 defendant American Building Maintenance Co.-West ("ABM Co.-West").

7 4. The EEOC now agrees to withdraw its claims against ABM Industries
8 Incorporated, which was not Ms. Mejia's employer.

9 5. In its amended complaint, the EEOC alleges that American Building
10 Maintenance Co.-West, d/b/a ABM Janitorial Services, ("ABM Co.-West")
11 violated Title VII by sexually harassing Ms. Mejia, thereby creating a hostile work
12 environment, and that ABM Co.-West also violated Title VII by retaliating against
13 Ms. Mejia because she complained of discrimination and otherwise opposed ABM
14 Co.-West's discriminatory practices, in violation of Title VII of the 1964 Civil 15 Rights Act, as amended.

16 6. The defendants filed answers denying the allegations in the amended
17 complaints.

18 7. The EEOC, ABM Co.-West and Plaintiff-Intervenor, (collectively,
19 "the Parties") want to conclude all claims arising out of the above complaints
20 without expending further resources in litigation. The Parties agree that entry of 21 the Consent Decree will be in the best interest of the Parties and will further the 22 objectives of equal employment opportunity as set forth in Title VII.

23 8. ABM Co.-West and Plaintiff-Intervenor have separately resolved Ms.
24 Mejia's personal claims, including all state law claims, asserted against ABM Co.-
25 West and arising out of her employment by ABM Co.-West.

1 II. NONADMISSION OF LIABILITY AND NONDETERMINATION BY
2 THE COURT

3 9. This Consent Decree is not an admission of wrongdoing nor an
4 adjudication or finding on the merits of the case and shall not be construed as an
5 admission by ABM Co.-West of any violation of Title VII or Washington state
6 law.

7 III. GENERAL PROVISIONS

8 10. Wherever ABM Co.-West is referred to in this Consent Decree, it
9 refers to defendant American Building Maintenance Co.-West, d/b/a/ ABM

12 ABM Co.-West's obligation to fully comply with Title VII of the 1964 Civil 13 Rights Act, as amended, the Equal Pay Act, the Age Discrimination in
14 Employment Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, or the regulations
15 promulgated pursuant thereto.

16 12. ABM Co.-West agrees that its employees are protected by Title VII
17 from retaliation for providing information or assistance to the EEOC, or filing a
18 charge, or receiving relief pursuant to this Decree. The EEOC agrees that this
19 paragraph in no way is intended to prevent ABM Co.-West from complying with 20 the statutes and regulations enforced by the Immigration and Naturalization
21 Service.

22 13. This Consent Decree in no way affects the EEOC's right to process,
23 in accordance with standard Commission procedures, charges filed by individuals
24 against ABM Co.-West alleging violations of Title VII. Charges include those 25 pending as of the effective date of the agreement and those filed in the future.

1 Processing includes the administrative investigation, conciliation and
2 commencement of civil actions on the basis of such charges.

3 14. This Consent Decree is not designed to provide any additional, non-
4 statutory rights to any person or entity not a party to this Decree.

5 15. If the EEOC concludes that ABM Co.-West has failed to comply with
6 this Consent Decree, the EEOC may move this Court to enforce this agreement
7 pursuant to Section XIII after compliance with the terms in Section X, Dispute
8 Resolution Procedures.

9 IV. SETTLEMENT SCOPE

10 16. This Consent Decree constitutes the complete understanding between 11 ABM Co.-West, the EEOC and Plaintiff-Intervenor with respect to matters herein.

13 will be effective unless it is agreed to in accordance with provisions of Section XI,
14 Amendment Procedures.

15 17. This Consent Decree is the final and complete resolution of all
16 allegations of unlawful employment practices contained in Angela Mejia's
17 discrimination charge, in the EEOC's administrative determination, and in the 18 complaints filed herein, and it includes all claims that could have been asserted
19 against defendants by the EEOC on Ms. Mejia's behalf or by Ms. Mejia under 20 Title VII arising out of her employment by ABM Co.-West.

2 (Fifty Thousand Dollars).

9 commitment to the personnel policies and procedures established by this Consent
10 Decree and to provide information and guidance on how to carry out those 11 policies.

12 22. Each training session will begin with a presentation in person or via
13 video by ABM Co.-West Vice President Jack Smith emphasizing ABM Co.-

15 explain ABM Co.-West's policy in accordance with Title VII, on sexual 16 harassment, reporting and retaliation.

17 23. Each training session at which there are employees who speak
18 Spanish and do not understand English will be orally translated into Spanish and

22 with the development of this training.

23 25. Within sixty days (60) after the effective date of the Consent Decree,
24 the EEOC, ABM Co.-West's Consent Decree Administrator, or other
25 representative and individuals involved in developing the training will discuss the

1 objectives of the training.

2 26. ABM Co.-West will provide to the EEOC, within one hundred and
3 twenty days (120) of the effective date of this Consent Decree, a detailed outline

18 will be shown to all current employees during ABM Co.-West's Title VII training
19 sessions and to all new hires at the time of their orientation.

20 30. ABM Co.-West will conduct the training outlined above annually

NOTICE TO ALL EMPLOYEES

This notice is being posted pursuant to an agreement between American Building Maintenance Co.-West, d/b/a/ ABM Janitorial Services ("ABMCo.-West") and the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission as the result of a Consent Decree entered in settlement of a lawsuit in the federal district court for the Western District of Washington at Seattle, Case No. C00-1651 Z.

Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, the Equal Pay Act of 1963, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 are enforced by the EEOC and require the following:

That there be no discrimination against any employee or applicant for employment because of the employee's race, sex, color, religion, national origin, age (over age 40), or disability with respect to hiring, firing, compensation, or other terms, conditions or privileges of employment.

It is an unlawful employment practice for an employer to retaliate against any employees or applicants for employment because they have opposed a practice or because they have made a charge, testified, assisted, or participated in any manner in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing under these statutes.

ABMCo.-West will maintain a training program to train its managers and employees regarding the requirements of the above statutes. ABM has specifically developed a sexual harassment policy and reporting procedures in compliance with Title VII and will provide training on the policy in both Spanish and English to all its employees, both orally and in writing.

This notice is being posted because ABMCo.-West supports and will comply with these federal laws in all respects and will not take any retaliatory action against employees because they have exercised their rights under the law.
