11/10/1994	127	ORDER by Judge Rudolph T. Randa that legal memoranda submitted in connection with motions are not to exceed two pages. Plfts try to avoid this limitation by "waiving" their right to file a supporting "memorandum" and relying solely on their "motion". Their "motion", however, is a 6-page document containing legal authorities and argument no different than what is typically found in a legal "memorandum" or brief. It will be treated as the latter. The Court therefore issues the following protocol: Deft shall file its response brief and/or afdts on or before 11/18/94. The brief shall not exceed 6 pages in length and any afdts shall not exceed a total combined length of 10 pages. A decision will follow thereafter. Plfts shall not file a reply brief. (cc: all counsel) (bdr,) (Entered: 11/14/1994)
11/14/1994	130	ORDER by Judge Rudolph T. Randa granting motion for leave to file materials instanter [114-1] and deft's two motions in limine and supplemental lay witnesses list are deemed timely filed. Plfts shall file their responses to the motions in limine on or before December 14, 1994. Deft shall file any reply on or before December 29, 1994. (cc: all counsel) (bdr,) (Entered: 11/16/1994)
