10/06/2009	15 2 pg, 44.04 KB	Filed order (Appellate Commissioner) The motion to proceed in forma pauperis is granted. The Clerk shall amend the docket to reflect this status. Respondent has filed a statement of non-opposition to the motion to stay removal pending review. Pursuant to Ninth Circuit General Order 6.4(c), the temporary stay of removal continues in effect until issuance of the mandate or further order of the court. If the Agency granted voluntary departure, and the stay motion was filed within the voluntary departure period, the voluntary departure period may have been stayed nunc pro tunc as of the filing date of the stay motion, and may also continue in effect until issuance of the mandate or further order of the court. See Desta v. Ashcroft , 365 F.3d 741 (9th Cir. 2004); but see 8

C.F.R. § 1240.26(e)(1), (i) (grant of voluntary departure terminates automatically upon the filing of a motion to reopen or reconsider with the agency or upon the filing of a petition for review). To the extent respondent may object to any request for a stay of voluntary departure, such objection should be raised in the answering brief. The September 25, 2009 motion filed by David Wolfe Leopold, Esq., to withdraw from representing petitioner is granted. The Clerk has amended the docket to reflect that David Wolfe Leopold, Esq., is no longer counsel of record for petitioner. The September 22, 2009 unopposed motion to place this case in the pro bono program is granted. The Clerk shall amend the docket to reflect that Anne R. Traum, Esq., is pro bono counsel of record for petitioner, rather than retained counsel. The certified administrative record has been filed.
