		Gee: Defendants seek to strike Plaintiffs' Statement of Uncontroverted Facts 288 . The Court DENIES Defendants' motion 291 based on the reasons they articulated (i.e., lengthy conclusions of law, legal arguments instead of undisputed facts). While these reasons are not grounds to strike the Statement, they may lead the Court to disregard certain asserted "facts," and Plaintiffs will have to live with the consequences of not having properly submitted a Statement that "contain[s] a narrowly focused statement of fact" that addresses a "single subject as concisely as possible." Defendants also request additional time to submit its second supplemental response in opposition to Plaintiffs' motion to enforce. The Court GRANTS Defendants' unopposed request for an enlargement of time 291 . Defendants shall submit their second supplemental response by 12/16/2016. 01/27/2017	326	(IN CHAMBERS) ORDER by Judge Dolly M. Gee. In its October 7, 2016 Order, the Court made it clear that the evidentiary hearing would be limited only to cross-examination and redirect examination of witnesses. [274.] It is with dismay that the Court finds itself reviewing last minute ambiguously worded emails from the parties counsel directed to the courtroom deputy clerk posturing about which of numerous witnesses should be made to appear at the evidentiary hearing on January 30th, when this matter has been set since October 7, 2016. If Plaintiffs have not made a demand to cross-examine any of Defendants witnesses, then there is no need to produce those witnesses for live testimony. Similarly, if Defendants do not wish to cross-examine any of Plaintiffs witnesses, then there is no need for Plaintiffs to produce those witnesses for live testimony. IT IS SO ORDERED.
