Re: CCSF v. Trump, et al.; Case No. 3:17-CV-00485-WHO

Dear Judge Orrick:

We have received inquiries about the Court's procedures and preferences for amicus briefs in support of the City and County of San Francisco's motion for a preliminary injunction, filed March 8, 2017 (docket 21). Defendants' opposition is due March 22, 2017, San Francisco's reply is due March 29, 2017 and the matter is currently set for hearing on April 12, 2017.

In the related case of County of Santa Clara v. Trump, et. al., Case No. 5:17-cv-00574, the Court issued an Order Regarding Amicus Briefs (docket 40). We respectfully request guidance about whether amici should follow similar procedures in CCSF v. Trump. Specifically:

1. What is the deadline for amicus briefs in CCSF v. Trump?
2. Are the pro hac vice requirements of Northern District of California Local Rule 11-2 waived for the limited purpose of filing a motion for leave to file an amicus brief and the attached amicus brief in CCSF v. Trump?
3. If amici seek leave to file identical briefs in the Santa Clara and San Francisco actions, are there any additional procedures that would facilitate efficient review by the Court?

In accordance with the requirements of Northern District of California Local Rule 11-4(c), we have provided opposing counsel with prior notice of this letter. Thank you for your guidance on these matters.

Very truly yours,

DENNIS J. HERRERA
City Attorney
