09/04/2009	297	ORDER: In the plaintiffs' "emergency motion 285 for a protective order," the plaintiffs seek a prophylactic ruling that certain areas of inquiry that is, plaintiff's immigration status and alienage not be permitted at their depositions on the grounds that such inquiry is oppressive, not relevant and would prejudice them because the information could be used against them in immigration proceedings. The plaintiffs also seek an order staying the depositions pending resolution of their motion. (Doc. #285 at 8.) The motion for a protective order is denied without prejudice and the motion for a stay of depositions is denied. Under the circumstances of this case, the court declines to issue a protective order in the absence of a record indicating the specific questions to which the plaintiffs object and the basis of the objection. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(c)(2); 7 Moores' Federal Practice §30.43 2 (3rd ed.) (outlining procedure and stating that when a deponent refuses to answer, counsel should make a record that will permit meaningful judicial evaluation upon motion after the deposition has concluded). 12/22/2009	396	ORDER: The defendants' motion 388 for an extension of time until 12/31/09 in which to file a response to the plaintiffs' motion to compel (doc. #367) is GRANTED. The plaintiffs' motion seeks to compel responses to an unusually large number of discovery requests and the parties have had ongoing discovery disputes. Before the defendant files its response, counsel are directed to meet and confer in a good faith effort to narrow or eliminate areas of controversy. After the meet and confer conference (and before the defendants file their response), the plaintiffs shall file a notice specifying which discovery requests are no longer at issue because they have been resolved. The notice also shall specify which requests have been narrowed or modified and shall set forth the text of the revised requests so the court has an accurate record of the current disputes between the parties. (See doc. #390, where the court noted that the parties' motion papers did not indicate that discovery request had been modified and did not set forth the text of the modified discovery request).
