JOINT REPORT
ON CASE STATUS AS OF SEPTEMBER 10, 2018

In accord with the Court’s minute order entered August 28, 2018, the parties respectfully submit the following report on the current status of this litigation:

1. Plaintiffs state that they have served Defendants with the Complaint pursuant to Rule 4(i)(1)-(2), and will file executed summonses when the post office returns to Plaintiffs’ counsel proof of service by certified mail. Defendants acknowledge that the U.S. Attorney’s Office was served with the Complaint on September 4, 2018.

2. Plaintiffs have reached out to Defendants to ask whether this action can be resolved by consent decree. Earlier today, Plaintiffs submitted a written proposal to Defendants regarding potential resolution of the Action. Defendants continue to believe that this case is moot and should be dismissed as such, but are reviewing and considering whether Plaintiffs’ proposal presents a viable resolution of this case.

3. If the Parties are unable to resolve the remainder of this action by agreement, then Defendants intend to move to dismiss this litigation within the time allowed under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and Plaintiffs intend to oppose Defendants’ motion.

DATE: September 10, 2018

Respectfully submitted,
