04/24/2018	172	ORDER dated 4/24/18 from the 7th Circuit regarding notice of appeal 79 ; Appellate case no. : 17-2991. IT IS ORDERED that the motion for partial stay is DENIED without prejudice to renewal. To the extent that Attorney General Jefferson Sessions is asking for reconsideration of this court's order denying his motion for partial stay, issued on November 21, 2017, the request is DENIED. No member of the panel has requested that the motion be considered by the court en banc. See Seventh Circuit Operating Procedure 1(a)(2). If Attorney General Sessions files a petition for rehearing en banc, he may ask this court for a partial stay with his petition or after any decision by this court to rehear this case en banc. It is more appropriate for the full court to consider a request for stay after Attorney General Sessions has presented his arguments for why en banc rehearing of this appeal is warranted. 08/06/2018	206	MINUTE entry before the Honorable Harry D. Leinenweber: Annette Mitchell is not a party in this case and her motion 203 is not appropriately before the Court in this matter. Her motion is accordingly denied as moot. 08/10/2018	208	ORDER dated 8/10/18 from the 7th Circuit regarding notice of appeal 200 , notice of appeal 79 ; Appellate case no. : 17-2991 and 18-2649. Rather than take the highly unusual step of allowing piecemeal appeals, see Reiter v. Cooper, 507 U.S. 258, 265 (1993) (noting the "historic federal policy against piecemeal appeals"), we hereby VACATE our decision to rehear No. 17-2991 en banc on September 6, 2018. The stay of the preliminary injunction in No. 17-2991 will remain in effect until the district court issues a proper Rule 65 injunction; accordingly, we DENY the City's motion to dismiss No. 17-2991 as moot. We DENY the Attorney General's motion for initial

		partial hearing en banc of No. 18–2649 and we DISMISS that appeal because of the lack of a final judgment. Because we are dismissing the appeal in No. 18–2649, we DENY the Attorney General's request to consolidate those appeals. Our denial of the motion for initial partial hearing en banc is without prejudice to the Attorney General's ability to file another appeal once the district court has issued a final judgment. The court is prepared to expedite its consideration of any such appeal, if and when one is filed. Any further details about the way in which the appeal will be handled will be resolved at the time. In light of the above rulings, the City's motion to suspend further briefing is DENIED. (aee,) (Entered: 08/13/2018)
