Case No.

SECT K MAG 4

COMPLAINT- COLLECTIVE ACTION

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1.1 This is an action brought by individuals who have worked and/or are working in the reconstruction of New Orleans, Louisiana. Plaintiffs seek redress on behalf of themselves and others similarly situated for Defendants' violation of their rights under the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. §§ 201, et seq. ("FLSA").

1.2 Plaintiffs bring this action on behalf of a class of hundreds of workers, predominantly immigrants, who restored public elementary and high school buildings for Defendants as part of the reconstruction of the New Orleans area in the aftermath of hurricane Katrina. For many weeks, Plaintiffs and other class members removed mold, mud, and debris and prepared city schools for reopening. They often worked seven days a week, twelve hours or more a day, in these contaminated environments to earn money to better support themselves and/or their families. Almost all of the Plaintiffs and other class members are individuals with limited English proficiency. Defendants exploited Plaintiffs' and other class members' indigence, inability to speak or understand English, and their lack of understanding of the laws of the United States regarding payment of wages, grossly underpaying them.

1.3 Defendant LVI Environmental Services of New Orleans, Inc. (hereinafter "LVI") had contracts to perform reconstruction and clean-up in New Orleans. In order to provide the manual labor needed to fulfill these contracts, LVI hired subcontractors, including D & L Environmental, Inc. (hereinafter

"D & L"), to provide workers. Defendant LVI used this subcontractor system to evade responsibility to pay minimum wage and overtime wages as required by the Fair Labor Standards Act.

1.4 Plaintiffs seek unpaid wages, an award of money damages, and declaratory relief to make them whole for damages they suffered due to the Defendants' violations of the FLSA.

COUNT I

(FAIR LABOR STANDARDS ACT)

(COLLECTIVE ACTION)

6.1 This count sets forth a claim for declaratory relief and damages by Plaintiffs and other current or former workers employed by Defendants who are similarly situated, for Defendants' violations of the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act ("FLSA"). The Fair Labor Standards Act provides that employees may bring collective actions on behalf of themselves and other employees similarly situated.

6.4 Defendants violated 29 U.S.C. § 206(a) by failing to timely pay each Plaintiff and others similarly situated the applicable minimum wage for every compensable hour of labor they performed.

6.5 Defendants violated 29 U.S.C. § 207(a) by failing to timely pay Plaintiffs and others similarly situated at an hourly rate equal to one and a half times the regular hourly rate at which they were employed for all compensable time they were employed in excess of forty hours in each workweek.

6.6 Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs and others similarly situated the federally mandated minimum wage and overtime wage rate for all time they were employed in excess of forty (40) hours in each workweek was a willful violation of the FLSA.

6.7 As a consequence of Defendants' violation of the FLSA, Plaintiffs and others similarly situated are entitled to recover their unpaid minimum and overtime wages, plus an additional equal amount in liquidated damages, pursuant to 29

U.S.C. § 216(b).
