05/07/2020		ENDORSED ORDER. Text of Order: On or before 5 p.m. on today's date, counsel shall submit the proposed bail orders for the four detainees that the court has ordered released. If counsel need an extension of time and that extension is assented-to, simply request that with my case manager via email. To help clarify the process regarding bail hearings and the imposition of bail conditions, the court issues the following two orders. 1.) Going forward, counsel shall submit proposed bail orders no later than 30 minutes before the start of the scheduled video bail hearing. If multiple bail hearings are scheduled for the same block of time, counsel shall submit proposed

		bail orders for each/ALL detainee(s) 30 minutes before the start of the first hearing. 2.) On or before Monday, May 11, 2020, counsel shall propose a template bail order for the Gomes bail hearings going forward. That template order should contain all of the conditions of release common to each releasee in this Gomes litigation, and shall also include a list of other potential conditions (such as those commonly issued by ICE when it releases someone in its custody) for the court to consider and edit as necessary. The court anticipates that the list of optional conditions would be over-inclusive and allow for more severe monitoring for the appropriate detainee. Were counsel to include a blank checkbox next to the specific condition (much like that on the courts template release order in criminal cases), such a template would permit the court to put a checkmark in the box to indicate that it is imposing that condition in the specific case. So Ordered by Chief Judge Landya B. McCafferty.(de) (Entered: 05/07/2020)

05/08/2020		Minute Entry for proceedings held before Chief Judge Landya B. McCafferty. SPECIAL HEARING held on 5/8/2020 via video conference re: Bail Hearing for Anthony George-Hamilton. (Court Reporter: Brenda Hancock) (Pltfs Atty: Ronald Abramson) (Defts Atty: Robert Rabuck)(Total Hearing Time: 50 minutes) (de) (Entered: 06/17/2020)
05/09/2020		ENDORSED ORDER. Text of Order: On Friday, May 8, 2020, the court ordered counsel for both sides to propose additional conditions to the courts template bail order (a fillable PDF with numerous

		options for the court to impose depending on the individual detainee). Under the circumstances, the court permitted this to be submitted via email over the weekend to the courts case manager. Counsel for the petitioners communicated this afternoon that they had no additional suggestions. Rather than make suggestions to the template bail order via email, counsel for respondents raised a legal objection to a section of the courts bail order. The section of the bail order to which respondents object prohibits ICE from arresting a petitioner while on release in this case unless arrested on a warrant from a federal judge or pursuant to an order of removal to occur within 2 weeks. To be clear, the court put on the record during the first bail hearing in this case where the court released a petitioner that it intended to include this re-arrest condition in the courts bail order. The court explained to counsel that it was borrowing the re-arrest provision from Judge Youngs bail order in Savino. The court does not recall the government raising an objection at that time; indeed, the government raised objections for the first time on Friday, and now via an email on todays date. To the extent respondents intend to raise a legal objection to the re-arrest provision in the courts release order, respondents must do so in a written filing so that petitioners may properly respond. Any such motion shall be filed on or before this evening, May 9, 2020 at midnight. Petitioners shall file any response on or before tomorrow, May 10, 2020, at 3 p.m. So Ordered by Chief Judge Landya B. McCafferty.(de) (Entered: 05/09/2020)

05/14/2020		ENDORSED ORDER. Text of Order: Counsel for petitioners have communicated via email today with the court's case manager about certain concerns related to ICE's impending transfer of detainees. To the extent petitioners intend the court to take legal action related to these concerns, a formal motion shall be filed. In such motion, counsel shall brief the court's authority in the context of a petition for a writ of habeas corpus to issue an injunction of the type they appear to seek here: preventing respondents from transferring petitioners out of this facility. Going forward, legal disputes shall be aired on the docket in the form of a motion and in accordance with local rules. Email correspondence is best left for procedural and scheduling matters. 05/15/2020		ENDORSED ORDER RE 122 Emergency MOTION FOR RELIEF AS TO 8 TO 10 DETAINEES TO BE TRANSFERRED OUT OF THE STRAFFORD COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS ON MAY 19, 2020. Text of Order: Petitioners have filed an emergency motion seeking to stop the transfer of 8-10 detainees from SCHOC to another detention facility for non-removal purposes. See doc. no. 122. At this time, neither respondents nor the court know which detainees may be transferred. Before additional petitioners were added to the case, and the court provisionally certified detainees at SCHOC as a class, see doc. no. 50, the court

		ordered respondents to provide the court with advance notice of the removal or transfer of petitioner Gomes out of the court's jurisdiction. See doc. no. 2. The court extends a notice requirement to all provisional class members. Accordingly, going forward, respondents shall provide the court with at least 72 hours advance notice of any scheduled removal or transfer of any civil immigration detainee at SCHOC out of the jurisdiction for non-removal purposes. Additionally, because the court has held that high-risk detainees are eligible for bail hearings, see doc. nos. 52, 123, the court orders respondents to immediately notify the court if the SCHOC, ICE, or any other medical records in respondents' custody or control indicates that a civil immigration detainee at SCHOC has a condition that makes them a high-risk detainee. A video hearing on petitioners' Emergency Motion for Relief (doc. no. 122) shall take place at 9 a.m. on Monday, May 18, 2020. To the extent respondents intend to object to the motion, they shall file that objection on an expedited basis. So Ordered by Chief Judge Landya B. 05/17/2020		ENDORSED ORDER. Text of Order: A flurry of new motions have been filed over the weekend. Among other things, petitioners seek a court order prohibiting ICE from transferring detainees out of the SCHOC. Petitioners have not cited a single case giving this court that kind of authority. Nonetheless, the court has an ongoing case involving the 8 detainees who are subject to a May 19 transfer to a new facility. At the hearing tomorrow, respondents shall be prepared to provide answers to the following two threshold questions: (1) How many ICE detainees have been transferred into SCHOC since, April 17, 2020, the date of the filing of the First Amended Petition in this lawsuit? Please list the numbers by date between April 17 through May 17, 2020. The court is not interested in knowing the numbers of the short-term detainees who come to SCHOC on a Thursday and are removed the next Tuesday (and are quarantined the entire time they are housed at SCHOC). Rather, the court is interested in knowing the numbers of detainees who remain housed in the SCHOC after their transfer. (2) With respect to the facility (or facilities) to which the 8 detainees are being transferred, what is the current percentage capacity of those facilities? That is, SCHOC is currently at a 64% capacity; what is the corresponding percentage at the new facility (or facilities)? So Ordered by Chief Judge Landya B. McCafferty.(de) (Entered: 05/17/2020)

08/17/2020		ENDORSED ORDER denying as moot 7 Motion for Preliminary Injunction. Text of Order: In April, petitioners requested a preliminary injunction halting the transfer of civil immigration detainees from other ICE detention facilities to SCHOC (doc. no. 7). Respondents have voluntarily halted these transfers. Petitioners now ask that the Court allow them to withdraw as moot their motion for a preliminary injunction (doc. no. 233). The court grants petitioners request. Document number 7 is therefore denied as moot. So Ordered by Chief Judge Landya B. McCafferty. (de) (Entered: 08/17/2020)

10/14/2020		ENDORSED ORDER: Early on in this case, and as a consequence of the courts decision to release some detainees on bail, counsel persuaded the court to schedule a date for status conferences in every single release case. The court sees no reason for a hearing or conference unless an individual case requires it. Thus, unless counsel files a request for a conference or hearing in a particular case, a status conference or hearing will not be held. Accordingly, the recurring status conferences are unnecessary and will be removed from the calendar. Deadline terminated: Status Conference 10/19/2020. (de) (Entered: 10/14/2020)
