09/14/2017		ORDER granting 54 Motion for Leave to File -- The motion is granted. Law students David Chen, Hannah Schoen, and Emily Villano are authorized to appear under the supervision of attorney Michael Wishnie. Ordered by Magistrate Judge James Orenstein on 9/14/2017. (Miao, Tiffany) (Entered: 09/14/2017)
09/15/2017		Minute Entry for proceedings held before Judge Nicholas G. Garaufis and Magistrate Judge James Orenstein: Pre-Motion Conference held on 9/14/2017. Counsel for all parties present. The court GRANTED Plaintiffs leave to file a second amended complaint. Plaintiffs shall file

		their second amended complaint by 9/19/2017. The court GRANTED Defendants leave to file a motion to dismiss and, separately, GRANTED Plaintiffs leave to move for class certification. The court set the following schedule for the anticipated motions: Defendants shall serve their motion to dismiss, and Plaintiffs shall serve their motion for class certification, by 10/20/2017; the parties shall serve their respective responses by 11/17/2017; and the parties shall serve their respective replies and file the fully briefed motions by 12/15/2017. A status conference will be held on 9/26/2017, at 4:00 PM, at which the parties are DIRECTED to appear. Judge Orenstein will address discovery issues in a separate order. (Court Reporter Georgette Betts) (Scott, Conrad) (Entered: 09/15/2017)
09/15/2017	58	ORDER: As discussed on the record at the conference in the Batalla Vidal action on September 14, 2017, I respectfully direct the parties to meet and confer about discovery. No later than September 22, 2017, the parties shall report their respective positions on the threshold question of whether discovery should proceed now or await the resolution of the defendants' anticipated motion for dismissal. By the same date, the parties shall submit their respective scheduling proposals in the event discovery is not stayed, as well as a proposed schedule for litigating any specific discovery disputes that the parties have identified as likely to arise. I will expect the parties to be prepared to discuss all matters relating to discovery at the next conference on September 26, 2017. In light of the fact that the parties to the Batalla Vidal action have agreed to the filing of a second amended complaint that will include claims that overlap with those already asserted in State of New York action, I encourage the plaintiffs' counsel in the latter case to participate in the meet-and-confer process in the former. Although issue has not yet been joined in the State of New York action, the participation of counsel from that case in the discovery planning process in the Batalla Vidal action will help to avoid needless burdens on the parties in each case. I therefore invite counsel for the parties in the State of New York action to appear at the conference in the Batalla Vidal action on September 26, 2017, and to participate in the discussion of issues relating to the discovery process. Ordered by Magistrate Judge James Orenstein on 9/15/2017. (Orenstein, James) (Entered: 09/15/2017)

12/14/2017		ORDER denying 117 Motion for Extension of Time to Answer -- As a renewed request for non-dispositive pretrial scheduling relief, rather than

		a request for review of an earlier ruling based on an assertion that the ruling was clearly erroneous or contrary to law, the applicable rules of this court require me to address the motion in the first instance. See, Loc. Civ. R. 72.2; Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(a). In renewing their request, the defendants incorrectly assumes that I misperceived the procedural posture of the case, or that I failed to take into account the personal difficulty the denial of scheduling relief may impose on counsel, their colleagues, and those they hold dear. To the contrary, the effect of this litigation on the lives of all persons whose interests are at stake, directly or indirectly, is unquestionably an important concern. Nevertheless, in the absence of consent, and because the time constraint of this litigation require the court to move ahead as quickly as possible to ensure a timely resolution of the parties' disputes, and with a full understanding of the circumstances set forth in the renewed motion, I again deny the request for scheduling relief. If the defendants wish to seek review of this decision, they may do so promptly pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 72(a). Ordered by Magistrate Judge James Orenstein on 12/14/2017. 02/21/2018	258	USCA MANDATE - Petitioner Kirstjen M. Nielsen, the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security, seeks a writ of mandamus to stay discovery orders entered by the District Court that required the Government (1) to supplement the administrative record it filed with the District Court and (2) to file a privilege log, in litigation challenging the decision to rescind the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals(DACA) program. We have considered Petitioner's additional arguments and find no basis for the extraordinary remedy of mandamus relief. 04/12/2018		ORDER granting in part and denying in part 261 Motion to Stay -- I agree with the Batalla Vidal plaintiffs that the defendants' proposal to stay the deadline for answering pending the resolution of appeals currently before the circuit court is inefficient and unnecessary. In the absence of such relief, the parties will be ready to resume discovery as soon as the appeals are resolved, while granting the motion will cause additional delay. It is reasonable to require the defendants to take the steps necessary to avoid exacerbating the needless delays they have already caused. However, that result can be achieved by granting the alternative relief the defendants propose of a 45-day extension of the time to answer. There is no reasonable prospect of the appeals being resolved by the deadline the Batalla Vidal plaintiffs suggest (April 20, 2018). Accordingly, I deny the defendants' request for an indefinite stay, but grant their alternative request of a 45-day extension. The defendants' shall file their amended answers by May 29, 2018.
