Re: Darweesh v. Trump, Case No. 1:17-cv-00480-CBA

Dear Judge Amon:

I write to seek the Court's permission to file an amicus brief on behalf of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and a group of States in support of the plaintiffs' motion for injunctive relief in this case. Alternatively, pursuant to Rule 3(A) of this Court's Individual Rules, we respectfully request a pre-motion conference with the Court for leave to file such a brief.

"District Courts have broad discretion in deciding whether to accept amicus briefs." Jamaica Hosp. Med. Center, Inc. v. United Health Group, Inc., 584 F. Supp. 2d 489, 497 (E.D.N.Y. 2008) (quoting Concerned Area Residents for Environ. v. Southview Farm, 834 F. Supp. 1410, 1413 (W.D.N.Y. 1993)). The Court may grant amici leave to file their brief if the information they offer is "timely and useful." Andersen v. Leavitt, 2007 WL 234672, at *2 (E.D.N.Y. Aug. 13, 2007) (quoting Long v. Coast Resorts, Inc., 49 F. Supp. 2d 1177, 1178 (D. Nev. 1999)). Here, the proposed amici States meet those requirements.

The proposed amici States are significantly impacted by the Executive Order at issue in this litigation. Individuals covered by the Executive Order include, among others, persons who have previously been granted valid U.S. visas that otherwise entitle them to work, study, and travel within the proposed amici States. In addition to harming such individuals, the Executive Order inhibits the free exchange of information, ideas, and talent between the seven designated countries and the proposed amici States, including at the States' many educational institutions; harms the States' life sciences, technology, health care, finance, and other industries, as well as innumerable other small and large businesses throughout the States; and inflicts economic harm on the States themselves through both increased costs and immediately diminished tax revenues. Our brief, if permitted, would describe these harms and offer the Court a more complete picture of the impact of the Executive Order across various economic sectors and communities.

Undersigned counsel has conferred with counsel for the parties in this matter. Plaintiffs and intervenor-plaintiff consent to the proposed amici States' request; defendants take no position on the request. For the foregoing reasons, we respectfully request the Court's permission to file a brief of amici curiae. In the alternative, we request a pre-motion conference with the Court for leave to file such a brief.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Jonathan B. Miller
