10/09/2020	108	ORDER denying 107 Letter Motion for Extension of Time. The government's motion for delay is denied. Plaintiffs' allegations relate to persons in detention who, allegedly, should not have been detained. As such, time is of the essence. The schedule built into my order of September 21, 2020 allowed the parties ample time to discuss and either agree, or disagree, to discovery demands. ECF No. 102. However, since a short enlargement of time may promote agreement, or, at least, sharpen the issues to be decided, the following revised schedule is ordered: 1. The period within which to meet and discuss, and then to submit a joint letter to the court, is enlarged to 10:00 a.m., October 19, 2020. A separate letter, submitted after the time for a joint letter has expired, will not be read. 2. Argument before the court is adjourned, from October 16, 2020 to October 21, 2020, at 2:30 p.m. Unless ordered otherwise, argument shall be made via the Court's telephone facilities. 3. These dates will not again be modified. So ordered. (Signed by Judge Alvin K. Hellerstein on 10/9/20) (yv) (Entered: 10/09/2020)
