06/21/2017		ALL MOVANTS AND NONMOVANTS seeking or opposing preliminary injunctive relief should, in addition to filing their motion and response electronically, bring two sets of binders to the hearing that contain courtesy copies of the motion to response, supporting memoranda, a list of witnesses, if any, an index of exhibits, and the numbered exhibits. All exhibits must be pre-marked and joint exhibits are encouraged. The movants should avoid using the same exhibit numbers. For example, 1-20 could be reserved for the El Cenizo/LULAC group of exhibits, 21-40 could be reserved for the City of San Antonio group of exhibits, 41-60 could be reserved for the El Paso group of exhibits, and so on. The parties must confer and attempt to stipulate to the admissibility of exhibits prior to the hearing. The parties are reminded that evidentiary standards are relaxed in a preliminary injunction hearing. Meritless objections will simply result in undue delay. 08/31/2017	191	Opposed MOTION to Stay Pending Appeal by Greg Abbott, Steve McCraw, Ken Paxton, State Of Texas, Texas Department of Public Safety. (Attachments: # 1 Proposed Order)(McCarty, Darren) (Entered: 08/31/2017)
08/31/2017		NOTICE OF APPEAL of the 189 Order 190 Notice of Appeal (E-Filed) by Greg Abbott, Steve McCraw, Ken Paxton, State Of Texas, Texas Department of Public Safety. Per 5th Circuit rules, the appellant has 14 days, from the filing of the Notice of Appeal, to order the transcript. To order a transcript, the appellant should fill out Form DKT-13 (Transcript Order) and follow the instructions set out on the form. 08/31/2017		Text Order DENYING 191 Opposed Motion to Stay Pending Appeal. Pending before the Court is Defendants' application for stay pending appeal of the Court's preliminary injunction order enjoining them from implementing and enforcing certain provisions in SB 4, which goes into effect September 1, 2017. [Docket no. 191]. As explained in the Court's order, the preliminary injunction preserves the status quo. Only those portions of SB 4 that, on their face, are preempted by federal law and violate the United States Constitution are being enjoined. A stay would alter the status quo and allow the entirety of SB 4 to be implemented and enforced on September 1 despite prior findings of preemption and unconstitutionality. Defendants have not met their burden that the Court considers in deciding whether to grant a stay pending appeal: "(1) whether the stay applicant has made a strong showing that he is likely to succeed on the merits; (2) whether the applicant will be irreparably injured absent a stay; (3) whether issuance of the stay will substantially injure the other parties interested in the proceedings and (4) where the public interest lies." Planned Parenthood of Great Tex. Surgical Health Servs. v. Abbott , 734 F.3d 406, 410 (5th Cir. 2013). "A stay is not a matter of right, even if irreparable injury might otherwise result to [Defendants]." Id. Defendants merely repeat the same arguments they made in opposition to the preliminary injunction, which the Court has carefully considered and rejected. Defendants have not made a showing (much less a strong showing) that they will likely succeed on the merits. Defendants will not be irreparably injured if the enjoined portions of SB 4 are not implemented and enforced on September 1. While Defendants have an interest in implementing and enforcing their enacted laws, the protection of constitutional rights is paramount. Substantial injury, including constitutional violations, will occur to other interested parties if a stay were to be granted and SB 4, in its entirety, were to be implemented and enforced. The public interest will not be served by granting a stay and allowing SB 4, which has been found to be preempted and unconstitutional on its face, to be implemented and enforced in its entirety. For these reasons, Defendants' motion for stay pending appeal (docket no. 191) is DENIED. entered by Chief Judge Orlando L. Garcia. (This is a text-only entry generated by the court.
