

THE HONORABLE JAMES L. ROBERT

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

JOHN DOE, et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

DONALD TRUMP, et al.,

Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2:17-cv-00178 JLR JLR

STIPULATION AND ~~PROPOSED~~ ORDER REGARDING
CONSOLIDATION AND SCHEDULING
FOR FURTHER PROCEEDINGS

On November 21, 2017, the Court directed the parties in Jewish Family Service of Seattle v. Trump, No. 2:17-cv-01707JLR (W.D. Wash.), and Doe v. Trump, No. 2:17-cv-00178 (W.D. Wash.), to show cause why the actions should not be consolidated pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 42(a). The parties have met and conferred and now agree and stipulate to the following:

1. The cases may be consolidated for further proceedings, provided that (1) the actions retain their separate character, (2) parties to one action will not be designated as parties to the other, (3) parties may continue to file separate briefing so long as it is not duplicative, and (4) consolidation will not affect the page limits to which parties are entitled under the Local Rules, except as

1 provided in this stipulation or by subsequent Court order.<sup>1</sup> Because Doe was
2 filed first, it shall be the lead case for all future filings.

3 2. The preliminary injunction hearing in Doe presently scheduled for December
4 11, 2017, at 1:30 p.m. PST should be vacated, and a new consolidated hearing
5 to address the issues raised in the preliminary injunction motions filed in both 6 Doe and Jewish Family Service should be set at a date and time convenient for 7 the Court following the completion of briefing in Jewish Family Service. The 8 parties respectfully propose a consolidated hearing during the week of 9 December 18, 2017, preferably during the early part of that week in view of the 10 approaching federal holidays.

11 3. Each set of Plaintiffs may file a short notice joining the motion of the other
12 Plaintiffs and addressing issues raised in the opening preliminary injunction 13 brief filed by the other set of Plaintiffs, provided that Plaintiffs will not use these 14 short notices to raise new claims or merits arguments not previously raised by 15 one set or the other. Thus, the parties agree that, on or before November 29,
16 2017, the Doe Plaintiffs and the Jewish Family Service Plaintiffs may each file
17 a notice no longer than three pages addressing relevant issues raised in the other 18 set of Plaintiffs' opening brief. The Government may respond to these 19 supplemental arguments in its response in opposition to the Jewish Family
20 Service Plaintiffs' motion for preliminary injunction, and may file an over-21 length brief in order to do so. Specifically, the Government's response brief in 22
23

---

24 <sup>1</sup> Plaintiffs believe that JFS and Doe should maintain their separate characters in light of the overlapping but differing 25 legal claims and classes (e.g., the JFS Plaintiffs' complaint seeks nationwide relief for refugees whereas the Doe 26 Plaintiffs' complaint focuses on Washington State and challenges additional policies). See 9A Charles Alan Wright, et al., Federal Practice & Procedure Civ. § 2382 (3d ed. 2017) (describing consolidation that "does not merge the suits into a single action"). As consolidated but not merged actions, parties in JFS and Doe would maintain separate pleadings, but Plaintiffs in each action would endeavor to avoid duplication wherever possible.
