CONSENT ORDER

Pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the court has determined that this action shall be maintained as a class action and has entered an order to that effect. Upon consideration of the representations of counsel for the respective parties that all parties agree that the following shall obtain pending final determination of this matter on the merits, it is by the court this 10th day of November, 1971,
ORDERED:

That defendants, their agents and employees shall permit plaintiffs' counsel and agents free access to all inmates of the D. C. Jail and shall not impede or delay plaintiffs' counsel or their agents from conferring with any inmate of the D. C. Jail;

Campbell v. McGruder

JC-DC-001-003

That defendants, their agents and employees shall not take any action by use of force, restraint, threat or transfer from the general population upon any inmate of the D. C. Jail calculated to or tending to deter their cooperation with plaintiffs' counsel in this case;

That defendants, their agents and employees shall not confine any inmate of the D. C. Jail in the treatment segregation cells or the "penthouse" cells except under emergency conditions when the safety of one or more inmates is threatened, in which event the inmate confined shall be given an immediate administrative hearing, no later than 24 hours from the beginning of the confinement, and sooner if possible, at which he shall be entitled to representation by counsel;

That defendants, their agents and employees shall provide one bed and mattress with adequate bedding for each inmate wherever confined except insofar as it shall constitute a danger to that inmate or to others;

That except where medical considerations require otherwise, defendants, their agents and employees shall provide food on a uniform basis for all jail inmates;

That defendants immediately take steps to eliminate the extreme temperatures which exist in the various inmate quarters of the D. C. Jail;

That defendants, their agents and employees shall provide prompt and complete medical attention to each inmate wherever confined;

That defendants, their agents and employees shall transmit any requests from plaintiffs to confer with counsel in this action within one hour upon receipt thereof;

That this order shall be posted prominently in every living area in the D. C. Jail.
