District of Columbia

LEONARD CAMPBELL, et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

ANDERSON McGRUDER, et al.,

Defendants.

C.A. No. 1462-71 (WBB)

INMATES OF D.C. JAIL, et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

DELBERT JACKSON, et al.,

Defendants.

C.A. No. 75-1668 (WBB)

ORDER

Upon consideration of the Plaintiffs' Motion that the Court Adopt the Special Officer's Findings on Environmental Health and Safety at the District of Columbia Detention Facility as the Court's Findings and that the Defendants Be Ordered to Show Cause Why They Should Not Be Held in Contempt of Court, the defendants' response thereto, the Court's findings in its April 20, 1993 Order Appointing Special Officer, and the record in this case, the Court finds that the Special Officer's findings on environmental health and safety at the District of Columbia Detention Facility are accurate and fully supported by the record.

Campbell v. McGruder

JC-DC-001-073

The Court further finds that the defendants are in non-compliance with material provisions of the Orders of this Court concerning the health and safety at the Jail as is detailed in the Special Officer's Notice of Filing and the attached report of James Balsamo.

Accordingly, it by this Court this 3rd day of August, 1995:

ORDERED that the findings of the Special Officer, which incorporate the report of James Balsamo on environmental health and safety at the District of Columbia Detention Facility are, pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 53(e)(2), adopted as the findings of this Court; and it is further ORDERED that the defendants must show cause on or before August 28, 1995 as to why they should not be held in contempt of this Court.
