The Court notes, for the record, that it grants this motion with great reluctance, having specifically warned Defendants that continued untimeliness would be strongly disfavored. That warning is sounded again. This old case must move forward to resolution. Recognizing the work loads of the Assistant United States Attorneys, the Court again advises that it is now necessary for the U.S. Attorney to devote sufficient resources to this case so that all future performance of the Office will be timely. This is the last time the Court will warn that performance must be timely. Signed by Judge Rosemary M. Collyer on 6/29/2007. (lcrmc2) (Entered: 06/29/2007)
