OBJECTIONS TO DEFENDANTS' DESEGREGATION PLAN

Plaintiffs respectfully object to defendants' proposed plan for desegregation submitted to this Court on December 5, 1966 on the following grounds:

Defendants' plan is vague and uninformative and fails to specify the present extent of desegregation and the amount to be achieved by July, 1967. Plaintiffs cannot properly respond with objections until they have the factual information which the answers to the attached interrogatories will provide.
