Defendants. :

O R D E R

This Court has received petition for reconsideration of previous order of this Court denying defendants' motion to dismiss, and it appearing that said petition raises serious question as to the legal ability of the named plaintiffs in this suit to maintain a class action, it is, upon consideration, hereby

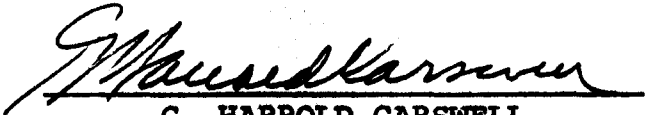

ORDERED:

1. Defendants' request that the time for filing its answer or other responsive pleading be tolled pending the disposition of this petition for rehearing is hereby granted.

2. Plaintiffs are hereby granted leave of court to file their memorandum authorities, brief, or other response to subject petition for reconsideration on or before May 4, 1964. Thereafter, defendants are hereby granted leave of court to file response, if desired, on or before May 11, 1964.

3. That portion of the order of this Court in this cause dated April 9, 1964 providing for hearing on motion for preliminary injunction on June 30, 1964 remains in force and effect pending entry of order on subject petition for reconsideration of defendants' motion to dismiss.

DONE AND ORDERED in Chambers at Tallahassee this 21st day of April 1964.
