U.S. DISTRICT COURT
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

v.

CIVIL ACTION No. 963

BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS OF STATE
INSTITUTIONS, et al.,
Defendants.

----- x

MOTION FOR AN ORDER IN ACCORDANCE WITH THIS COURT'S RULING FROM THE BENCH
ON FEBRUARY 6th, 1967

1. At the conclusion of the hearing on defendants' objections to plaintiffs' interrogatories (filed in January, 1967), held on Monday, February 6th, 1967, this Court stated from the bench:

(a) That it would require that defendants answer certain of the interrogatories which it would select.

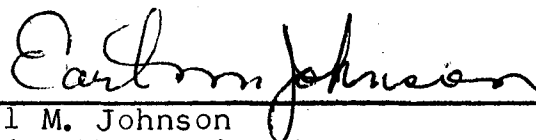

(b) That it was designating July 1, 1967, as a reference point for determining the progress of desegregation.

Since that time plaintiffs have not received an order from the Court containing the above, nor have plaintiffs received from the defendants, answers to any of the interrogatories, or any statement of the progress of desegregation.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs move that the Court issue an order (embodying its statements from the bench) requiring defendants to answer as of July 1, 1967 such of the interrogatories as, in the judgment of the Court, are necessary to apprise plaintiffs of the precise extent to which the Florida schools have been desegregated.

Respectfully submitted,
