Defendants)

This action was initiated by the plaintiff on June 22, 1978, alleging that the operation of the Yakima County Juvenile Detention Center of Yakima County, Washington violates the Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution. The court has made no Findings of Fact or Conclusions of Law as to the claims of the plaintiff.

The parties hereto have resolved the claims of the plaintiff through the execution of a "Stipulation For Entry of Judgment" filed in this court on September 30, 1982. Private settlement of claims are favored by the law. The defendants have agreed to henceforth operate the Yakima County Juvenile Detention Center in accordance with their stipulation. No action by this court to date or by the entry of this Order should be construed as a determination by this court that the procedures agreed to by the defendants in the Stipulation are required by the Constitution of the United States of America. The defendants are, however, bound

1 by the terms of the Stipulation entered in this case. Based upon 2 the foregoing, this action is hereby DISMISSED subject to the 3 rights of the plaintiff as provided in the Stipulation to claim 4 reasonable attorney fees and costs and subject further to the 5 rights of the parties to bring appropriate enforcement or 6 modification action in a court having jurisdiction thereof.
