07/30/2004		Judge Kenneth P. Neiman : ELECTRONIC ORDER entered granting 117 Motion for Leave to File Reply. (Neiman, Kenneth) (Entered: 07/30/2004)
08/02/2004		Judge Kenneth P. Neiman : ELECTRONIC ORDER entered granting in part and denying in part 114 Plaintiffs' Motion to Compel. If, indeed, there is "no real disagreement" between the parties as to discovery deadlines, as Defendants assert, then Plaintiffs' motion could be allowed without opposition. Defendants, however, oppose Plaintiffs' motion even though it tracks deadlines proposed, evidently, by Defendants. Thus, it appears that the dispute centers on whether the proposed dates are truly deadlines or simply dates which Defendants can thereafter utilize to justify "supplementing" inadequate discovery responses. As the parties are no doubt aware, the requirement to supplement, as set forth in Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(e), applies to "information thereafter acquired." The rule, when read in its entirety, does not justify responses which are knowingly inadequate in the first instance. In this vein, when the court allowed, in part, the parties' joint motion to extend discovery, filed on July 2, 2004, and ordered that all non-expert discovery be completed by August 27, 2004, it understood, as no doubt the parties understood, that the completion of written discovery would have to precede the completion of non-expert depositions by the deadline. Thus, the deadlines now proposed by Plaintiffs (if not Defendants as well) are not unreasonable. Accordingly, the court will ALLOW Plaintiffs' motion with some slight alterations. DMH and DYS shall respond to Plaintiffs' second set of document requests by August 6, 2004. DMA, EOHHS and DSS shall supplement their responses to Plaintiffs' first set of document requests by August 6, 2004. All Defendants, as well as their subsidiary agencies and MCOs, will complete their interrogatory responses by August 6, 2004. And EOHHS, DMA and DSS shall complete their responses to Plaintiffs' second set of document requests by August 13, 2004. So ordered. (Neiman, Kenneth) (Entered: 08/02/2004)

06/23/2020	897	Judge Richard G. Stearns: ELECTRONIC ORDER entered. The First Circuit having declined to rehear the appeal en banc and in anticipation of the issuance of the mandate and remand of the matter to this session, the court believes it would be of benefit to all involved to convene a status conference. To that end, the court would like to be informed of counsel's availability between July 21 and July 28, 2020. As the conference will most likely have to proceed by way of remote video (Zoom), geographical considerations should not be a constraint. To insure the most productive meeting possible, the court will order the parties to submit by close of business on Friday, July 17, 2020, an agenda memorandum summarizing each side's view of the outstanding issues and the most efficient path each believes the litigation should take going forward to a resolution. Please notify my Chief Law Clerk, Marsha Zierk, no later than Wednesday, July 1 (at Marsha_Zierk@mad.uscourts.gov), of your availability for the conference on the business days between July 21 and July 28. (Zierk, Marsha) (Entered: 06/23/2020)

07/28/2020	905	Judge Richard G. Stearns: ELECTRONIC ORDER entered. As agreed at this afternoon's status conference, the parties will have sixty days to confer on all outstanding matters in this litigation with a view to narrowing the issues and refining the existing disengagement criteria to the extent possible. By October 5, 2020, the parties will report to the court regarding those parts of the existing Judgment which they can agree have been substantially satisfied and identify those portions of the Judgment, if any, that will need to be further litigated. As part of the status report, the parties will provide the court with a proposed briefing schedule regarding any motion by plaintiffs to modify the existing Judgment.
