21 CORA CURRIER,

22 Plaintiff,

23 v.

24 DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY,
25 DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
26 DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, and
27 DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE,
28 Defendants.

Case No. 3:17-cv-01799-JSC

JOINT STATUS REPORT

Plaintiff Cora Currier and Defendants—the Department of State (DOS), the Department of Justice (DOJ), the Department of Defense (DOD), and the Department of Homeland Security (DHS)—respectfully submit this Joint Status Report.¹

1. This case arises from multiple Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests submitted by Plaintiff, dated February 1, 2017, and April 3, 2017. The requests seek records from the four defendant

¹ The components of DOJ and DHS that are processing Plaintiff’s requests are: (1) the Executive Office for United States Attorneys (“EOUSA”); (2) the Federal Bureau of Investigation (“FBI”); (3) the Office of Legal Counsel (“OLC”); (4) the Office of Information Privacy (“OIP”); (5) the U.S. Marshals Service (“USMS”); (6) the DHS Privacy Office (“DHS-PRIV”); (7) U.S. Customs and Border Protection (“CBP”); and (8) DHS’s Office of the Inspector General (“DHS-OIG”).

1 agencies, including from multiple offices and/or sub-agencies within them.

2 2. The parties have been filing periodic joint status reports and have participated in multiple
3 status conferences since the Court denied Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Injunction on August 24,
4 2017. The parties also have been conferring about the scope and prioritization of Plaintiff's FOIA
5 requests.

6 3. On December 7, 2017, the parties jointly proposed that the Court enter an order requiring
7 the parties to file joint status reports on the second Thursday of every month, beginning on January 11,
8 2018, until further order of the Court. The parties further indicated that, if any party identifies any issue
9 that the party believes warrants the Court's intervention, the parties will meet and confer about the issue,
10 and if the parties are unable to resolve the issue, will identify the issue in their next monthly status report
11 and request that the Court schedule a status hearing. In the interim, the parties explained, they do not 12 believe that regular status hearings are necessary.

13 4. Although the Court has not yet entered an order adopting the parties' proposal, the parties 14 have agreed amongst themselves to submit joint status reports in accordance with their proposal unless 15 and until the Court directs them to proceed differently.

16 Production Updates and Status

17 5. Seven agencies or components—DOJ-OLC, DOJ-OIP, DOD, DOS, DHS-OIG, DHS-
18 PRIV, and DHS-CBP—continue to make rolling productions on approximately a monthly basis. The 19 attachment to this joint status report indicates the dates and volumes of all of Defendants' releases to 20 date. The attachment does not reflect the volume of records that were processed but determined non-21 responsive.

22 6. DOJ-EOUSA, DOJ-USMS, and DOJ-FBI have completed their processing of Plaintiff's
23 requests to those components.

24 7. Agencies or components that have completed processing may need to process additional 25 records if they receive referrals from other agencies or components for direct release to Plaintiff or are 26 asked to consult or coordinate with other agencies that are processing Plaintiff's requests.

1 Date: February 8, 2018

Respectfully submitted,
