Guys,

Not sure if you have been following the news regarding what's been happening at the airports with respect to Trumps executive order dealing with people coming into the US from various countries.

Last evening from approx 10pm-200am an emergency hearing was held at the Moakley before Judges Dein & Judge Burroughs. The ACLU requested the emergency civil habeus hearing after a couple LPRs (legal permanent residents) were allegedly delayed at Logan by CBP in connection to Trumps order. There was also a protest in Logan as well. Similar events took place in NYC.

As a result of this hearing last night, the Judges issued a Temporary Restraining Order (TRO) with regard to the president's executive order which I will forward to you in a separate email. Still unclear exactly what our role/responsibility would be as cited in the order but we are seeking clarification from OGC.

Just a heads up as we are expecting a busy Friday. We should see an inordinate number of press and public, possibly with demonstrations outside the courthouse.

Judge Sorokin will have (b) (6) sentencing at 9:30am.

Judge Gorton will hold the TRO hearing in Loughalam et al v. Trump at 11:00am.

Judge Stearns will still have his NECC trial ongoing.

Thank you,
