09/01/2013	67	MINUTE entry before the Honorable Sharon Johnson Coleman: as to Adel Daoud(#43222424); On 8/29/2013, Defendant Adel Daoud filed a motion to vacate this Court's denial of his motion for Notice under the FISA Amendments Act 65 . At the hearing on 8/27/2013, the parties presented eight motions, discussed briefing schedules and additional discovery, and rescheduled the trial date. During discussion on the motion for FAA Notice, the defendant responded to the Court's query that he was not seeking to respond to the government's written statement that it does not intend to use FAA obtained or derived evidence. Upon review of the the discussion of this particular issue, the Court understood defendant to agree that further argument on the motion for FAA Notice was not necessary based on the Government's unequivocal statement that it does not intend to use evidence obtained or derived from surveillance conducted under the FAA and if its position changes it would provide the Notice required by the statute. However, this Court finds no prejudice in allowing further examination of this issue. As stated at the hearing, this Court will give serious consideration to all submissions on contested motions. Defendant's motion to vacate the denial of his motion for Notice under the FAA 65 is granted. The Court is available to hear the parties further on this issue or if more scheduling is required, on 9/5/2013 or by agreement of the parties upon consultation with the court deputy. 12/10/2015	197	MINUTE entry before the Honorable Sharon Johnson Coleman: as to Adel Daoud(#43222424); Status hearing held on 12/10/2015 as to Defendant Adel Daoud. The Court heard arguments on defendant's Emergency Motion for Evidentiary Hearing to Determine the Mental Competency of Defendant 188 and defendant's Motion to Reassign Based Upon Relatedness 192 . The defendant was present in Court. The government does not dispute that defendant has made an adequate showing to secure a competency evaluation under section 4241. The Court therefore grants the motion to determine competency. The Court also grants the Motion to Reassign, but only for the limited purpose of determining defendant's competency. The Court finds it is in the interest of judicial economy to address defendant's mental competency in this case as well as case No. 15 CR 487, currently assigned to Judge Samuel Der-Yeghiayan, in one proceeding rather than having the matter arise separately in each case. Case No. 15 CR 487 would then return to Judge Der-Yeghiayan for all remaining purposes. Status hearing set for 12/18/2015 at 10:30 a.m. Pretrial conference stricken. Jury trial set to 1/5/2016 is stricken due to this order. At the next status, future trial dates will be discussed. 03/12/2018	246	MINUTE entry before the Honorable Sharon Johnson Coleman as to Adel Daoud: Competency hearing held on 3/12/2018. Government moves that defendant is competent to stand trial. The Government presented a report from Dr. Gillespie Wadsworth, in which she found that Defendant's competency has been restored by consistent treatment with psychotropic medication. The Government also presented a Certificate of Restoration to Competency. Defendant did not object to the report submitted by the Government and presented the testimony of Dr. Stephen N. Xenakis. Both experts agreed that Defendant's competence is dependent on the continuation of his medication. Defendant was put under oath for the Court to affirm that he understood the proceedings and did not wish to testify on his own behalf regarding the competency issue. This Court finds that the Government had met their burden by a preponderance of the evidence to show that Adel Daoud is competent to stand trial. Status hearing is set for 4/11/2018 at 1:00 PM. 06/12/2018	252	MINUTE entry before the Honorable Sharon Johnson Coleman as to Adel Daoud: Motion hearing held on 6/12/2018. Defendant's emergency motion to modify conditions of pretrial detention to permit his temporary release into the custody of the United States Marshal for psychiatric treatment 249 is denied without prejudice. After hearing oral argument on the motion, this Court believes the best course of action in this case with a lengthy and complicated medical as well as legal history, is to permit a psychiatric evaluation of defendant's prescriptions and dosages by 6/26/2018. The Court rejects both defendant and government options for addressing the pressing issues of defendant's medications and counseling treatment. The Court's preference is for an in-person evaluation and neither the government nor the representative from the Bureau of Prisons presented evidence that such an evaluation would be overly burdensome. The Court recognizes that it cannot direct the Bureau of Prisons to comply with this Court's preference. However, the logistical and financial inconvenience for the BOP to transport a psychiatrist from one of its facilities that were mentioned in court to the MCC is much less onerous than the other options offered. This solution should give all parties confidence that this matter is addressed in the most prudent and expedient manner. The physician's report of the evaluation, must be presented by 7/17/2018. The status hearing previously set for 7/18/2018 at 1:30 PM to stand. Mailed notice. (ym,) (Entered: 06/12/2018)
07/18/2018	253	MINUTE entry before the Honorable Sharon Johnson Coleman as to Adel Daoud: Status hearing held on 7/18/2018. Counsel reviewed the status report and medical review of Daoud's prescribed psychotropic medicine. The BOP psychiatrist opined that the current dosage is needed but did not give opinion as to the effect of giving

		Daoud a slightly lower dosage to reduce side effect of drowsiness. BOP psychiatrist to be available by phone on the next date to answer questions from counsel and the Court regarding effectiveness of the current medicine and the appropriateness of dosage. The Court encouraged counsel to draft a list of questions to ask the doctor so that issues remain narrow and the exchange is brief. Daoud's independent psychiatrist should be available to hear the questioning and answer follow up questions by phone or in person. If the parties resolve the issue or reach another solution, they are to inform the Court prior to the next status and provide any additional information regarding Daoud's medications. Status hearing set for 7/24/2018 at 2:00 PM. Mailed notice. (ym,) (Entered: 07/19/2018)
07/24/2018	254	MINUTE entry before the Honorable Sharon Johnson Coleman as to Adel Daoud: Status hearing held on 7/24/2018. Dr. Cutillar from the FMC Butner and defense expert Dr. Xenakis were made available by phone to be questioned by court and counsel. Dr. Cutillar will prescribe a lower dose of Abilify to defendant so that his next dosage on or about August 18 will be a 200 mg injection instead of the previously prescribed 300 mg. Final pretrial order and motions in limine are due by 10/5/2018. Response to motions in limine are due by 10/12/2018. Pretrial conference is set for 10/25/2018 at 1:30 PM. 11/26/2018	303	ORDER as to Adel Daoud: Change of plea hearing held. As previously set forth, the defendant sought to withdraw his not guilty plea in cases 12-cr-723, 13-cr-703, and 15-cr-487, and to enter a plea of guilty while maintaining his innocence pursuant to North Carolina v. Alford, 400 U.S. 25, 91 S.Ct. 160, 27 L.Ed.2d 162 (1970). The

		Court, having conducted a lengthy colloquy informing the defendant of his rights, and confident in both the defendant's competence to enter a plea and his demonstrated understanding of the nature of the plea he seeks to enter, concludes that there is an adequate factual basis for the defendant's plea and that the interests of justice compel this Court to accept it. A judgment of guilty is accordingly entered against the defendant pursuant to Alford. Cases 12-cr-723, 13-cr-703, and 15-cr-487 are referred to the Probation Office for a presentence investigation report. The sentencing in this matter is set for 4/29/2019 at 10:30 A.M. 04/24/2019	324	MINUTE entry before the Honorable Sharon Johnson Coleman as to Adel Daoud: After careful consideration of the materials submitted for in-camera review, the Court concludes that they do not warrant the expansive discovery that the defendant now seeks and that they were previously known, at least in part, to the defendant. See U.S. v. LeRoy, 687 F.2d 610, 618 (2nd Cir. 1982). The Court further notes that the materiality of the evidence in question is doubtful in light of the defendant's stated intention to proceed with sentencing notwithstanding the Court's ruling. The Court does not preclude the defendant from attempting to present portions of the in-camera evidence, or related evidence, to the extent that such evidence is material to the Court's determination at sentencing.
