Opinion

ORDER

MARRERO, J.

*1 Upon consent of the parties, it is hereby:

ORDERED that Plaintiffs may file documents on the public docket that reflect undisputed alterations to the redactions previously approved by the parties or the Court.

While no prior permission from the Court shall be necessary for documents reflecting these undisputed alterations to be publicly filed, the parties are directed to follow the procedures outlined in paragraph two of the Court's Order dated May 12, 2004, and reported at 317 F.Supp.2d 488, 492 (S.D.N.Y.2004), in order to ensure that the publicly-filed versions of the redacted documents actually reflect agreed-upon alterations. The Court shall stay adjudication of any dispute over alterations to the redactions it has previously approved pending resolution of the Government's appeal of the Court's Decision and Order dated September 28, 2004, and reported at 334 F.Supp.2d 471 (2004). Such stay, however, shall not prejudice any remedy that Plaintiffs may seek before the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit related to the Court's prior sealing determinations.

SO ORDERED.
