10/23/2013	57	Letter dated October 4, 2013 from Agron Hasbajrami to Judge Gleeson, requesting copies of sentencing hearing minutes, docket sheets, grand jury transcripts, criminal complaint and pages 288, 289, 290. (Piper, Francine) (Entered: 10/23/2013)
10/23/2013		ORDER as to Agron Hasbajrami re 57 Letter. The defendant was sentenced on January 8, 2013 on his plea of guilty to attempting to provide material support to terrorists. He has not filed a notice of appeal. I have received a letter dated October 4, 2013 from the defendant demanding certain discovery, including grand jury transcripts, the "criminal complain[t]" and other documents. The defendant's plea of guilty has extinguished his right to the discovery he seeks. A couple of the requested documents -- the docket sheet and the transcript of the sentencing proceeding -- are readily obtainable and ought in fairness to be provided to him, but I see neither an entitlement to the others or a justification for directing the government to provide them. Accordingly, the government is ordered to send a copy of the docket sheet and the sentencing transcript to Hasbajrami on or before November 1, 2013 and to file a letter confirming its compliance with that order by that date. Otherwise, the request for discovery is denied. Ordered by Judge John Gleeson on 10/23/2013. (Aronoff, Peter) (Entered: 10/23/2013)

12/03/2013		ORDER as to Agron Hasbajrami. The Court has received Mr. Hasbajrami's November 20, 2013, letter, docketed as 60 . However, as evidenced by the docket sheet, the Court never received a copy of the motion to vacate sentence referred to in the letter. Without expressing any view on whether Mr. Hasbajrami did in fact submit the motion previously, the Court invites Mr. Hasbajrami to submit the motion again. However, he is reminded that federal law enforces time limits on motions to attack a conviction or sentence, so the Court encourages him to proceed expeditiously. Any dispute about timeliness will be resolved, if necessary, when the motion is made. A copy of this order, along with a copy of the docket sheet, will be mailed to Mr. Hasbajrami. Ordered by Judge John Gleeson on 12/3/2013. (Aronoff, Peter) (Entered: 12/03/2013)

12/04/2013		ORDER as to Agron Hasbajrami. In light of the government's submission of Mr. Hasbajrami's July application 61 , the Court's 12/3/13 order directing Hasbajrami to refile any such application is moot. Instead, the Court will construe the attachment as a motion under 28 U.S.C. § 2255 and direct the Clerk to open a new civil case as a collateral attack on Hasbajrami's conviction or sentence. A copy of this Order and yesterday's now-moot order will be mailed together to Mr. Hasbajrami. Ordered by Judge John Gleeson on 12/4/2013. (Aronoff, Peter) (Entered: 12/04/2013)

02/17/2016		ORDER as to Agron Hasbajrami: the sealed, ex parte application dated 2/16/2016 is granted. Ordered by Judge John Gleeson on 2/17/2016. (Bensing, Kayla) (Entered: 02/17/2016)
02/23/2016		ORDER as to Agron Hasbajrami: the presumptively classified opinion denying the 92 motion to suppress was given to the classified information security officer on February 18, 2016 for service by hand to defense counsel and the government. Ordered by Judge John Gleeson on 2/23/2016. (Bensing, Kayla) (Entered: 02/23/2016)
02/25/2016		ORDER as to Agron Hasbajrami: to clarify my order dated February 23, 2016, the Court had understood that the presumptively classified opinion denying the 92 motion to suppress had been served to defense counsel. The classified security information officer has since informed the Court that the presumptively classified opinion was not served to defense counsel, but that instead an unclassified and redacted version of the opinion was served to all parties on February 25, 2016. The Court is communicating with the government to arrive upon a version of the opinion that may be publicly filed, and the Court will so file when that process has concluded. Ordered by Judge John Gleeson on 2/25/2016. (Bensing, Kayla) (Entered: 02/25/2016)
03/08/2016	165	ORDER as to Agron Hasbajrami: attached is a memorandum and order explaining the basis for my decision to deny the 92 motion to suppress. There are several instances in this memorandum where language has been substituted, and two instances where language has been redacted, from that in the presumptively classified opinion given to the classified information security officer on February 18, 2016. These substitutions and redactions reflect the government's decision that the material redacted would "expose government equities." Ordered by Judge John Gleeson on 3/8/2016. (Bensing, Kayla) (Entered: 03/08/2016)
